PROTEST AGAINST DISCRIMINATION

STOREKEEPERS OPEN PREMISES ON SUNDAY

Magistrate Says Future Cases
Will Be Considered as Deliberate Infringement of Law

Vancouver, May 10.—That fourteen storekeepers who kept their premises open on Sundays did so not on account of wishing to violate the Lord's Day Act, but as a protest against the discrimination shown by the state-ment made by Mr. J. A. Russell, K. C., in the police court yesterday when the above number were arraigned and, after legal argument had taken place, were each fined the nominal sum of $1 by Magistrate Shaw.

Mr. Russell referred to the article in the Sun of that morning which showed that the civic authorities were opposed to such discrimination as had undoubtedly been made. He claimed that his worship should be guided by the wishes of the police commission-ers representing the city of Vancouver.

The Retail Dealers' Association, whom Mr. Russell represented, had been in communication with Hon. W. J. Bowser, and the defending counsel claimed that the magistrate should give precedence to the wishes expressed by the civic body.

In fining the storekeepers the magis-trate remarked that while in this case he would recognize it as a form of protest, he would in future consider such cases as a deliberate infringement of the law.

FIGHT FOR SPRECKLES ESTATE.

Sacramento, Cal., May 10.—The state supreme court yesterday issued an order denying the petition of John D. and Adolph Spreckels for a rehearing in the appeal taken from the judgment of the superior court in the $5,000,000 estate of Claus Spreckels deceased. These are the same appeals upon which arguments were heard last Monday on application to have them dismissed from the calendar of the supreme court, which was also denied.

SOCIALIST DEPUTY EJECTED BY POLICE

Member, Who Refused to Obey
President, Carried From Diet Chamber

Berlin, May 10.—The long-standing conflict between President Baron von Ertla and six Socialists of the Prussian Diet resulted yesterday in the calling of policemen to the Diet chamber, whence they ejected Deputy Borchardt, who, during an anti-Socialist speech, repeatedly had interrupted the speaker. The president ordered him to be seated and on his refusal declared him ex-cluded from the session. Borchardt refused to withdraw and the session was sus-pended while a lieutenant and four policemen carried him, violently strug-gling, to the street. Later Borchardt returned and was again ejected.

The president has the power under the rules of the House thus to dispose of anyone who fails to obey the rules, but it was the first time that this power has been exercised.

The Socialists, owing to the classified franchise, have a small representation, but have succeeded in greatly incon-veniening the president and other parties during the present session. A revision of the rules of order to prevent such obstruction by a minority is pending.

WILL RESIDE IN EDMONTON.

Owen Sound, Ont., May 10.—While no definite announcement has been made so far, there is no doubt that Hon. A. G. MacKay, until recently leader of the Ontario opposition, has located permanently in Edmonton. MacKay will in all probability resign his seat in the legislature at an early date and this will leave North Grey open for a bye-election. Mr. MacKay will return to Owen Sound in mid-summer to conclude his business ar-rangements here.

TWO HOUSES BURNED.

Coleman, Alta., May 10.—Two houses in West Coleman were destroyed by an early morning fire, the loss being $3,500. The fire started at the rear part of a residence of Prussia Mon-shak, and so fiercely was the fire rag-ing when the family were awakened they had to rush from the burning building and not a single thing was saved, and when they made their re-turn they were scantily clad. The second house to go was occupied by Aunt Billak. This family had time to save a part of the household furniture before the fierce blaze put an end to salvage operations.

VICTORY FOR PROVINCE.

Quebec Gets $108,000 in Succession Duty Case.

Montreal, May 10.—The supreme court decided in favor of the province in the case of $108,000 against the estate of the late Sir Robert Reid for succession duties. Defendants fought the case on the ground that certain properties, bonds of the Dominion Iron and Steel Company, bonds of the government of Newfoundland, bonds of the Warehouse Company, valued al-together at $795,374, were not at the death of the late Sir R. G. Reid situate or payable in the province of Quebec, and were not chargeable with suc-cession duty. In addition, there were debts of the estate amounting to $510,216, which should have been added to the liabilities. His Lordship Mr. Justice Greenfield gave judg-ment in favor of the King for the full amount claimed.

KILLED ON WEDDING TOUR.

Grand Forks, N. D., May 10.—Lieut. Ray Strath McDonald, U. S. N., killed in Brooklyn, N. Y., while alighting from a street car while on his wedding tour, was a resident of Grafton, N. D. His first service in the navy was dur-ing the cruise of the Atlantic, around the world. Lieut. McDonald, who was with his bride at the time of the accident, was thrown from the car against an iron pillar.

WORK ON G. T. P. MAY BE DELAYED

E. J. CHAMBERLAIN TO MEET A. W. SMITHERS

Death of C. M. Hays Likely to Result in Late Start on
New Operations

Winnipeg, May 10.—E. J. Chamber-lin, vice-president and general man-ager of the G. T. P., has returned to the city. Mr. Chamberlin has been in the east for the past few weeks con-sidering the year's programme. He was to have met C. M. Hays at Montreal, and they were to decide on the pro-gramme of construction and develop-ment for the G. T. P. As it is now, Mr. Chamberlin will return to Montreal next Wednesday to meet A. W. Smith-ers, chairman of the board of directors. Then they will decide on the work this year. Mr. Chamberlin states that the work will be somewhat late in start-ing as a result of the death of Mr. Hays, but the construction work now in progress will be continued. There are about six hundred miles of grade waiting to be tracked.

MANY ARE SEEKING SAFETY IN FLIGHT

Dykes Near New Roads, La.,
Are Weakening—Exodus of Women and Children

New Roads, La., May 10.—Panic reigned in New Roads to-day. Fear of flood waters that crept upon the town from levee breaks was heightened by reports that nearby dykes were weak-ening. A general exodus of women and children began.

This is the third consecutive calamity the people of the Pointe Coupee have been compelled to face. The first came when Boll weevil de-stroyed the cotton crops. The people, disheartened, turned to planting cane. Then an early frost came last winter destroying thousands of tons of cane. Now the flood is spreading over the entire parish. Crops cannot be planted this year.

Prior to this series of disasters, the Pointe Coupee, then under "intensive" cultivation, produced 64,000 bales of cotton and 3,000,000 pounds of sugar cane, besides large crops of rice.

KOOTENAY VACANCY.

Wilmer, B. C., May 10.—E. Mallan-daine, in an interview yesterday said: "In view of the fact that Robert F. Green will be a candidate for the nom-ination at the convention, I have de-cided to withdraw in his favor." The convention will be held at Nelson on May 15.

UNION CHARTER REVOKED.

Chicago, May 10.—Newspapers were sold at a number of downtown corners to-day without guard for the first time since the beginning of the strike. Fol-lowing the action of President James S. Freed, of the Stereotypers' Union, revoking the charter of the Chicago union, for rebelling against the laws of the international organization, more striking stereotypes applied to the newspapers to-day for reinstatement.

SECOND READING OF HOME RULE BILL

GOVERNMENT HAS INCREASED MAJORITY

Premier Asquith Given Ovation
—Enthusiastic Demonstration
by Ministerialists

London, May 10.—The government carried the Home Rule Bill on its second reading in the House of Com-mons last night by a majority of 101 as against 94 for the first reading. The vote was 372 to 271.

It was the most largely attended sitting of the present parliament. Both sides had done their utmost to secure every available vote. Mr. Balfour, former opposition leader, and Mr. Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, returned from Weymouth in order to be present.

The announcement of the figures showing an increased majority occasioned an enthusiastic demonstration on the government side, and the prime minister was given a great ovation on leaving the house with his wife and daughter, by the crowd that assembled outside.

The bill was referred to a committee of the whole house, but as Home Rule and Welsh Disestablishment are being taken concurrently it will now be the turn of the Welsh bill.

Fusion of Parties.

Curiously the second reading of the Home Rule bill coincided with the dis-appearance of the word Conservative, as the official designation of the Tory party. A conference of the Conserva-tive and Liberal-Unionist party yester-day finally resolved on a fusion of the two parties under the title of the "National Unionist Association." Thus the Liberal-Unionists who seceded from Gladstone on his espousal of Home Rule now become part and parcel of the Tory party.

Bonar Law's Speech.

Andrew Bonar Law, leader of the opposition assailed the bill fiercely. The government, he said, was setting up custom houses, not to create a union but to destroy the union which al-ready existed. He denounced the safe-guards assured in the bill as utterly futile, condemned the financial provi-sions and drew a gloomy picture of Ireland's future under Home Rule.

Every new parliament of inexperienced men, said the speaker, had tried to get the millennium in a hurry. The new Irish parliament would launch all sorts of schemes for imposing condi-tions on the country and borrowing money for the purpose. As a result the imperial parliament would become liable for a huge capital sum it would not have sanctioned and for expendi-tures over which it had absolutely no control.

Referring to the example of South Africa, which had been cited to justify Home Rule, Mr. Law said that in South Africa the two races wanted union, but that one of the two races, numbering a million would be bitterly opposed to Home Rule. He asked in such circumstances under what principle did the prime minister justify forcing the acceptance of the bill on Ulster.

In conclusion the opposition leader said that the government never could carry the bill through unless it was first submitted to the judgment of the country.

Premier Replies.

Premier Asquith wound up the de-bate for the government in a forceful speech, which aroused enthusiasm on the part of his supporters. No serious attempt, he said, had been made by the opposition to meet the argument with which he opened the discussion, namely the character and persistence of the Irish demand. Had this de-mand been made under similar condi-tions by any community of their race throughout the empire, there was not a man on either side who would not say that it was entitled to con-sideration.

A demand so persistent, continued the prime minister, was one to which a democratic parliament in these days was bound to yield.

If the Irish vote were eliminated in the House of Commons there would still be a majority of fifty or sixty for Home Rule.

Referring to the Ulster threats Premier Asquith said he believed the British people to be just and gen-erous. They detested intolerance and persecution in any form, but they were not the people to be frightened out of what they believed to be just by lan-guage of intimidation. The govern-ment had asked repeatedly what further safeguards were desired but the only answer of the opposition was that they would receive from Ulster nothing but unyielding and uncon-promising resistance.

Dealing with the safeguards, he said that if the Irish parliament passed acts transcending the bounds that the government had set these acts would become void. No one was bound to obey them. No one could be punished for disobeying them. The bill was final in the sense that it was the settlement of a long standing warfare, but no one claimed for it that there might not be a necessity hereafter to modify some of its provisions.

In conclusion Premier Asquith said that the claim of Ireland was a para-mount urgency because there was no part of the United Kingdom to which the imperial parliament owed so long and so deep a debt.

YUKON COUNCIL.

The First Session Will Be Opened on May 30.

Dawson, Y. T., May 10.—Governor Black yesterday published a procla-mation calling the Yukon council, re-cently elected, to open its first session here beginning May 30.

The complete vote from all polls, now in, shows the following final re-sults: North Dawson, C. W. C. Tabor and Alairie Seguin, elected; South Dawson, Dr. Alex. Gillis and Isaac Lusk, elected; Klondike district, Eu-gene Hogan and Archie Martin, elect-ed; Bonanza, Duncan Robertson and George Williams, elected; White Horse, W. L. Phelps and Captain Martin, elected.

PIONEER MISSIONARY DEAD.

Calgary, Alta., May 10.—Rev. Father Jean Marie Lestanc died at the Holy Cross hospital. Father Lestanc came to Canada in 1854. His first work was at Fort Garry, now Winnipeg, and St. Boniface. With the development of Winnipeg Father Lestanc sought the frontier. He was always at heart a frontiersman. Twenty years later, in 1874, he came to Alberta. For some years he was stationed at Macleod, which was then only a little ranching village. He was 85 years of age and was born in Brittany, France.

POLICE FIRE ON STRIKE RIOTERS

SEVERAL WOUNDED IN PENNSYLVANIA FIGHT

Strikers Beat Firemen at Mines—Women Take Part in Attacks

Scranton, Pa., May 10.—The Cayuga breaker of the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Company, in North Sora-nous, formed the background of a riot-ous demonstration to-day.

Foreigners were the leaders among the crowd of 2,000 men and boys that settled near the breaker to keep away men who are going to do the necessary work. They were wild in their out-cries and defied the squad of local police. Harry calls came from the mine officials that trouble was threatening.

The idle workers broke through the police lines, rushed the fire rooms and dragged out men, turning out others who they beat and threw aside. Leggett's Creek mine, a mile away, hurried over. Their coming rallied the local police, and the officers charged the mob. There were shots from the officers. Bricks, stones and clubs were thrown, and the officers drew their guns and began to force the crowd back. Several shots were fired by the police as Policemen Peter Marker and Louis Davis fell, both with battered heads from cobblestones.

The state troops then rode into the crowd firing their revolvers. Mike Flack, a foreigner, dropped, shot in the abdomen. An unidentified man was shot through the leg.

The crowd then broke and ran, and the police combined to drive them on toward the hills. Two men and half a dozen women were arrested.

William Littlejohn, who was going to fire duty at the Leggett's Creek mine, was badly beaten by women.

MINISTER RETURNS FROM WASHINGTON

Hon. J. D. Hazen Says Negotiations Regarding Fisheries Treaty Proved Satisfactory

Ottawa, May 10.—Hon. J. D. Hazen, minister of marine and fisheries, who returned at noon from Washington, states that negotiations which took place in regard to the fisheries treaty were of an eminently satisfactory character. The minister stated that the Dominion of Canada would not, for at least a year, withdraw from the treaty because of failure of the United States to ratify it. In the meantime it is expected that a satisfactory understanding will be arrived at.

FALLS TO HIS DEATH.

Viking, Alta., May 10.—In saving the life of W. Kirkpatrick, a neighbor who had fallen into a 42 foot well in which there was considerable gas, Fred J. Dayton, a young farmer, plung-ed to his death before the eyes of his young wife. Dayton went to the bot-tom of the well to rescue Kirkpatrick and Mrs. Dayton pulled him to safety. Dayton then stepped into the noose on the end of the rope, and was hauled to within a few feet of the top of the well, when apparently overcome by gas, he dropped back to the bottom, being killed instantly.

REBEL ADVANCE GUARD REPULSED

NINETY KILLED IN FIGHT WITH FEDERALS

Fifteen Thousand Men Reportedly Engaged in Operations in Mexico

El Paso, Tex., May 10.—The Mexican federal army has repulsed the rebel advance guard of General Orozco and sharp skirmishes are in progress to-day, preliminary to what is expected to be the most decisive battle of the present revolution. Nearly 15,000 men are engaged on both sides. The ob-jective point of the rebels is Torreon, the railway gateway of Northern Mexico. The federals are protecting the city from all sides.

The government claims it drew first blood yesterday, killing ninety rebels and losing but seven men, aside from several wounded.

From a telegraph office, improvised in the desert, fifty miles north of Tor-reon, General Victoriano Huerta, com-mander of the federal army of North-ern Mexico, transmitted by telegraph to an Associated Press representative here the news of developments of the last twenty-four hours. The box car telegraph station stood a few miles from the town of Bermejillo, where the main body of the federal troops rested on their arms. The wire was set up direct to the federal camp, being routed from El Paso via Laredo, Texas, Monterey and Torreon, and round about circuit eastward of more than 1,000 miles, made necessary by the seizure of all telegraph lines directly south of here by the rebels.

From the improvised telegraph office General Huerta, enthusiastic of the future battle, sent the following:

"Thursday, General Huerta com-pletely routed 1,000 rebels at Zarateza and Tlahualilo, both near Torreon. The rebels lost ninety dead and many wounded, while our loss was seven dead and a few wounded. The rebels were driven back in hasty flight and were pursued by cavalry under General Villa.

"On Wednesday we heard that a de-tachment of 1,000 rebels was advancing on us, and we organized a column which went by railroad, under General Rabago, to cut off retreat. We sent volunteer and regular cavalry from the forces of Villa.

"They arrived about 5 o'clock Thurs-day morning, and immediately attack-ed the rebels. As the fight became more intense, General Rabago arrived, and flanked the rebels. He had with him artillery and machine guns. The fight lasted six hours. We completely routed the enemy, and without exaggerating one bit can say they ran like rats."

"A telegram has been brought me from General Huerta at Cuatro Ciénegas which says the rebel chief, Salazar, was completely routed, and is running away in the direction of Sierra Mojada," said General Huerta.

Couriers from the advance guard at this juncture are here, according to General Huerta, and informed him that the federal outposts were in pos-session of the Mexican Central rail-road up to within twelve miles of Bermejillo.

No communication has been estab-lished with the rebels from here early to-day, but the Liberal officials here concede they met stubborn resistance in the initial skirmishing. To-day is the first anniversary of the surrender of Juarez to Madero, and important developments in Mexican history are expected.

Another Report.

Escalon, Mexico, May 10.—The two armies facing each other held their positions to-day without resumption of the fighting. General Orozco will leave before noon for the front. Gen-eral Salazar will join him late to-day from Sierra Mojada.

Without a decision, the first pre-liminary encounter between the rebels and the federals between Conajas and Torreon, took place yesterday near Tlahualilo. Both sides retired after several hours' stiff fighting, conducted for the most part at long range.

Liberal chiefs report the capture of fifteen prisoners. The federal loss is believed to be heavy. The rebel loss was 25. The rebel leaders estimated the number of army at 2,000.

Sixty-three panic-stricken soldiers were disarmed after their flight from Salazar's column, caused by the story that Salazar's command had been routed with heavy losses. Salazar claims he did encounter a heavy force of federals, near Carman about half-way between Cuernavaca and En-cinava, but says he retired without losing any men.

Urges "Human Warfare."

Juarez, May 10.—Pasqual Orozco, sr., father of the rebel military chief, to-day issued a proclamation as sec-etary of war in the cabinet of Pro-visional President Emilio Vasquez Gomez, urging all rebel chiefs to the "strictest observance of the laws for war as recognized by all civilized countries."

The proclamation is made at the di-rection of Gomez, and though no ad-vice yet have come from General Orozco to signify his approval of the executive authority assumed by Gomez recently, it is considered likely that whatever else Orozco may repudiate, he will not discountenance any declara-tions of his father.

The elder Orozco recommends hu-man warfare, "not only to answer in this way the summary executions, in-cendiary acts and destruction of prop-erty that frequently are made by the troops of the Madero government, but principally on account of the noble ideals of liberty and justice, that the revolution is striving for. Persons and property of non-combatants must not only not be molested but must be pro-ected, extending to them every pos-sible guarantee."

ACCIDENTAL DEATH.

Vancouver, May 10.—At the inquest on Frank Doyle the jury returned a verdict of accidental death by asphyx-iation. Doyle went into his bath at the Lily Rooms, 858 Main street, on Monday afternoon, and his partner, Mr. Frank Male, in company with a constable broke open the door two and a half hours later. Doyle was found under the water, with the gas escap-ing from the jet.

BRITISH COLUMBIA HORSE.

Ottawa, May 10.—A militia order contains the formal announcement that the official designation of British Col-umbia's two four-squadron regiments will be (1) 80th Regiment British Col-umbia Horse, and (2) 31st Regiment British Columbia Horse.

SAILORS TESTIFY AT INVESTIGATION

Cross-Examination of Fireman Postponed Until Officers
Arrive in London

London, May 10.—The testimony given by the board of trade Titanic in-quiry by Charles Hendrickson, one of the firemen of the Titanic, who said the lifeboat he was in was not returned to the scene of the disaster because Sir Costa and Lady Duff-Gordon objected that it would be dangerous, was con-sidered so important by the White Star Company that its attorney at the opening of the inquiry to-day requested that the cross-examination of the witness be postponed. The attorney de-sired time to consult with the surviv-ing officers of the Titanic who are on their way to England on board the Adriatic. The request was granted.

Members of the crew were to-day examined as to how they left the Ti-tanic, the number of passengers in their boats, and whether they returned to the scene of the disaster to try to rescue some of those in the water.

WASHOUT DELAYS FOUR C.P.R. TRAINS

Track Near Kamloops Damaged by Torrent From Irrigation Dam

Kamloops, B. C., May 10.—A torrent of water released last night at 6.30 o'clock through the breaking of an ir-rigation dam twelve miles south of Cherry Creek, a point fifteen miles west of Kamloops, swept down the creek bed, tearing out the six-foot concrete culvert under the C. P. R. tracks, delaying four trains, and doing $500 worth of damage to C. P. R. prop-erty. Train No. 1, from Montreal, due in Vancouver at 8.45 this morning, is nine hours late; train No. 13, due in Vancouver at noon, from St. Paul, is seven hours late, and trains Nos. 4 and 14, for Montreal and St. Paul respec-tively, which left Vancouver at 8.45 and noon yesterday, are delayed three and six hours respectively. Several freight trains are held up.

On train No. 1, which was due in Vancouver at 8.45 o'clock this morning, is F. W. Peters, general superintendent of the British Columbia division, who is proceeding to Vancouver to suc-ceed the late James Osborne; A. E. Stevens, recently appointed assistant general superintendent of the division, and G. E. Graham, division superintendent, who came to Kamloops to meet the of-ficials.

The wash out took out two sidings, seventy-five feet long, and the hole it made is nine feet deep. The water swept away the dump at the head of the ties on the main track. About 1,000 cubic yards of boulders and loose gravel were deposited on the track 100 feet from the washout. The track was passable at 7.30 o'clock this morning.

BODY FOUND IN TRAVELING BAG.

Vancouver, May 10.—Yesterday the body of a newly-born baby was found in a traveling bag that was floating in the water near the Vancouver milla. The police were communicated with as soon as the bag was brought ashore and they are now trying to find the party who is responsible. An inquest will be held on the body to-day.

ON THE TRAIL OF INDIAN MURDERERS

OFFICERS IN VICINITY OF CANOE CREEK

Every Indian Rancher in the District is Under Police Surveillance

Clinton, B. C., May 10.—Since leaving Clinton last Sunday on the trail of the Indian murderers, Moses Paul and Paul Spiritum, Chief Constable Fernie and his Indian trackers from Kamloops have kept steadily on the track of the desperadoes, and a messenger who ar-rived here yesterday afternoon stated that they were at Canoe creek, 12 miles northwest of here, at noon. This is the first word received from the posse since they took up the trail last Tues-day at Jane's ranch, where a saddle was stolen.

The messenger stated that at Canoe creek the trail had been temporarily lost, but that its recovery was hourly expected. Officers are posted at strategic points north and west of Canoe creek, and every Indian rancher in the district is under surveillance.

There are those in Clinton who are inclined to the belief that Spiritum has either killed his less desperate partner and hidden the body, or that the latter fell a victim to the fusilade of bullets which were fired into the brush at the time Constable Kindness was killed. This theory originated from the fact that the track of only one man has been found leading from the scene of the murder, although an hour previous to the shooting the rancher Truan, who reported their whereabouts to the officers, was talking to both Indians. After talking with Truan they moved about a mile, and there was ample opportunity for a quarrel over the advisability of the killing which might culminate in the worst Indian killing his partner. Searches will scour the vicinity to-day and endeavor to prove the soundness of this theory.

Superintendent Campbell went with a posse to Pavilion Mountain yester-day to investigate a report that two horses had been found, which had been ridden extremely hard and which may furnish a clue to the murderers.

DECLARES HE WAS OFFERED BRIBE

Conservative Makes Sensational Statement—Nationalists Are Involved

St. Jerome, Que., May 10.—Sensa-tional statements were made here by Camille De Martigny, the Conservative candidate who is running in Ferre Bonne in opposition to John Prevost, the Nationalist candidate and former member.

Mr. De Martigny declared that he had been approached by Conservatives and offered the post of general im-migration agent in Paris and $10,000 in cash if he would withdraw. In ad-dition, he said, he was told that the federal government would defray the ex-penses of moving him and his family to Paris.

"I refused those offers," said Mr. De Martigny. "I would not dishonor my-self for any position, in Paris or else-where."

The statement was made by Mr. De Martigny at the nomination meeting held in the town hall here, at which Mr. Prevost was present. Mr. De Martigny gave Mr. Prevost the lie direct regarding the latter's statement that he would withdraw.

Merval, night engineer at the Waldorf apartments, is critically ill at the city hospital, the victims of seeping gas in a room of a rooming house in Union street. The accident is said to have resulted from an attempt to tap the Seattle Light Company's piping by another lodger in the house who gives the name of Helmer Johnson.

CHARGE AGAINST FEDERAL TROOPS

Alleged to Have Placed Poison
in Springs—Attack
by Rebels

Escalon, Mexico, May 10.—That poison in drinking water is the ammunition which the federalists now are using to crush the rebels, was the charge made by Gen. Salazar, who reported to Gen. Orozco that the recent battle at Cuatro Ciénegas was a rebel victory. Salazar sent word by courier that he lost twenty-two men, most of whom perished after drinking from a spring, presumably infected by the federalists. Many of Salazar's men are ill. Salazar declared the government loss was seventy killed and many wounded.

Hold Strong Position.

Juarez, May 10.—Rebel leaders here last night admitted that the vanguard of their forces had attacked Bermejillo on the way to Torreon, and had met stubborn resistance all day. Reports of twelve hours of skirmishing have reached here.

According to Colonel Pascual Orozco there are eight thousand insurgents entrenched near Bermejillo and about 3,000 federalists.

A dispatch from Escalon stated that a courier from the front brought the news that the federalists from behind strongly fortified positions were warding off the invading rebels with a heavy artillery fire. General Huerta, commander of the government troops, is said to be well toward the front of his army directing operations.

Massing Rebel Forces.

At the rebel front near Bermejillo, Mex., May 10.—Operating from Escalon as a base where General Orozco and his staff are stationed the Liberal forces continued yesterday to tighten their cordon around the heavily garrisoned and fortified federal outposts at Bermejillo and Meximil, both towns being less than 20 miles from Torreon.

Though much skirmishing has been in progress, no battle had been fought up to 5 o'clock last night, the federalists refusing to be drawn from their strong positions. There was hardly an hour in the day, however, that the Liberals did not feint at some point to coax the entrenched federalists out in the open but the latter refused to take the bait.

In the meantime General Orozco was massing his men and getting them into positions where his artillery could support them. By the bringing up of more guns, and dynamite bombs last night Orozco believes he can take the federal outposts by assault, and drive those federalists not killed and captured into Torreon for a last stand.

Notwithstanding the intense heat the men in the field are in good condition. A high wind has blown constantly for several days, raising clouds of alkali dust, and enabling the Liberals to move freely without fear of detection.

Just when the long looked for battle will be fought is problematical, but it will not be fought until the investment of the besieged stronghold is complete, unless the federalists change their tactics and come out in the open.

Atrocities by Bandits.

New York, May 10.—"There has been far more murder and persecution of Americans in Mexico than the press in the United States have told," said J. C. Walker, of England, who arrived here on the steamer City of Mexico from Vera Cruz, with twenty-five other passengers. He said that most of the atrocities are committed by bandits, but frequently bands of Mexicans styling themselves "revolutionists" murder and rob Americans and Englishmen.

One of the refugees said an American woman near Vera Cruz was compelled to witness the execution of her husband. The victim was first strung up by the thumbs, the fingers of both hands later being amputated, after which one of the torturers severed his head with a machete.

ATTEMPTED BRIBERY CHARGED BY BRYAN

Allegations Promptly Denied by Governor of Ohio, Who Sought Nomination

Findlay, Ohio, May 10.—William J. Bryan, in his speech here, said that since coming into the state he has obtained a letter in evidence that Governor Harmon is favored by Wall Street. He said: "I have stated as late as February, 1908, Governor Harmon still hoped to be the Wall Street candidate for president that year. I am now prepared to add that as late as June, 1908, his friends hoped to nominate him at Denver, notwithstanding that two-thirds of the delegates had been instructed for me. His friends tried to purchase delegates in Ohio who had been instructed for me."

"I do not say that Mr. Harmon authorized his friends to buy delegates, but I challenge him to deny in writing that his friends did not try to buy votes. If any one will furnish me with a written denial signed by him, I will produce the letter, of which I have a copy, showing that the money which was to have been used to purchase delegates was to come from New York and the men who were to furnish it were prominent in Wall Street."

Harmon Issues Answer.

Columbus, Ohio, May 10.—Governor Harmon has issued a statement denying the charge made by Mr. Bryan at Findlay. "I most emphatically deny," he said, "that any one authorized by me or by my authority attempted to purchase any delegates at the Denver convention in 1908."

NEW GOLD COINS.

Ottawa, May 10.—The finance department is forwarding to the several offices of the receiver-general at Victoria, Vancouver, Winnipeg, Toronto, Montreal, St. John, Charlottetown and Halifax a supply of the new ten and five-dollar Canadian gold coins now being minted at Ottawa. The public may obtain these coins upon application, and payment therefor at any of the above named offices.

The minister of finance has personally donated the first coin of each denomination to the Victoria Memorial Museum at Ottawa, as they are likely to be of future historical interest.

DECLARES SHE FASTED FORTY-FIVE DAYS

Dr. Linda B. Hazzard, of Seattle, Says She Feels No
Ill Effects

Seattle, Wash., May 10.—Dr. Linda B. Hazzard on Wednesday evening ate at a dinner given to her and her friends. Dr. Hazzard says with that meal she broke a fast of forty-five days.

Mrs. Hazzard ate her last meal before her long fast on March 24, and declares she has had no other sustenance since then other than about eighteen quarts of water. She says her weight has fallen from 142 to 102 pounds and she is reduced visibly, although her face shows but little emaciation.

Throughout the fast Mrs. Hazzard has worked normally, attending to her practice, lecturing and writing, and asserts she is now much better in health than at the beginning of her deprivation from food.

The fast was undertaken because of bodily ailments brought about by the nervous strain of her trial. She declared that she entered upon the fast with no idea as to the limit, merely proposing to continue until hunger returned. This happened a few days ago. Mrs. Hazzard says that this is her longest fast. On one previous occasion she was without food for thirty-one days, and on another for twenty-eight. Longer fasts than these have been undergone, says Mrs. Hazzard, who states that one of her Seattle patients has fasted for seventy-five days continuously and that there is a California record of seventy-nine days.

Mrs. Hazzard's share of the report was confined to a few leaves of head lettuce and half a dozen spoonfuls of boiled unaltered rice.

Dr. Hazzard received a citation from the state board of medical examiners, demanding her presence before the board to show cause why her license to practice osteopathy and the fasting system should not be revoked.

FRENCH WOMEN IN POLITICS.

Paris, May 7.—The municipal elections were interesting here because the suffragette made her first appearance in French politics. Two women ran for office, but the support they received was not very great. One of them was Madame Pelletier, the noted suffragette, who polled 148 votes against 1,860 cast for her male opponent. It must be remembered, however, that every one who voted for Madame Pelletier knew that the vote was wasted, as under the French law the election of a woman to the office would have been invalid.

The other candidate was Miss Renaud. She received 463 votes against 2,065 cast for her male opponent. Both women ran as unified Socialists.

DISCIPLINARY RULE DECLARED OBSOLETE

METHODIST EPISCOPAL BISHOPS AND AMUSEMENTS

More Than Million Ignore Law Against Theatres, Dancing and Races

Minneapolis, Minn., May 9.—Clergy of the Methodist Episcopal church discussed the question whether the church law prohibiting dancing, card playing, gambling and going to theatres, circuses and horse races should be abolished, as recommended by the board of bishops.

On the ground that their investigations showed that two-thirds of the 3,350,000 members of the church either danced or went to circuses and theatres without regarding it as being sinful, the bishops declared that the disciplinary rule against these diversions, in force for forty years, had become obsolete. They asserted that while the church would continue to protest against these forms of amusement, still it was better not to have any specific law on the subject than to have a law which was ineffective. John Wesley's injunction, "leaving the amusement question to the conscience of individuals," the twenty-four active bishops declared, was the wisest regulation for "Americans of the twentieth century."

A demonstration which greeted Bishop Earl Cranton's reading of the recommendation was taken as indicating a lively debate on the question when it comes up for a vote of the 350 delegates. A motion declaring that the rule "had been a source of constant irritation and unrest in the church," and asking that it be referred to a committee was promptly voted down, arguments being presented that the full conference was "going to settle that question and no one else."

No sooner was the motion made than James I. Bartholomew, of New Bedford, Mass., got the floor. "I knew of a high school boy who, in studying English, went to see 'Macbeth.' It was the duty of the pastor, without option, to expel that boy from the church; on the ground that he had violated this supposed law. A jury, acting under the rule, would have to expel, but a jury acting under Wesley's rule, would certainly not expel."

Arguments against continuing the anti-amusement rule as presented were: That the majority of churchgoers never have refrained from dancing and theatres because of the church, and the violation of this rule has tended to bring all church discipline into contempt; that many persons regard Shakespeare on the stage as being as good as Shakespeare in a book; that many persons refuse to condemn all plays because of some of them, just as much as they would refuse to condemn all novels because some novels are not proper; that gambling is fundamentally wrong and does not need a rule to prohibit it.

Arguments for continuing the rule were that to abolish it would give the impression the church was tending toward laxity and was indorsing the things which it formerly opposed; that abolition of the rule would remove restrictions which held members from those forms of amusement.

The bishops' report set forth that 1,354 out of 2,667 district superintendents had declared the amusement paragraph in the church discipline was ineffective.

PATHEPIC SCENE AT FUNERAL.

Colored Porter of the Late Judge Mabey's Car is Overcome While Attending Obsequies.

Port Rowan, Ont., May 10.—Tramping doggedly along the dusty country road within a few feet of the hearse the most heart-stirring figure in the funeral procession on Wednesday of the late Chairman Mabey of the Dominion Railway Board, was the little colored porter of the dead commissioner's private car. When the chair man was stricken, the porter began to haunt the corridors of the hospital, and when the news of his death came he collapsed. Tuesday night the porter was taken to St. Michael's hospital suffering from nervous prostration. But Wednesday he appeared on the funeral train eager to follow the dead commissioner's remains to their last resting place. When the church services were over the porter was the last one to approach the casket for a final look. He stood for a moment and then began to cry in a silent manner. Someone led him away. As he neared the door he began to sway and would have fallen but for a kindly arm. He then followed the remains to the graveyard, and stayed until the end.

SIR L. DAVIES EXPLAINS.

Boston, May 10.—So many different versions having been circulated concerning the remarks made by Sir Louis H. Davies, justice of the Canadian Supreme Court, at the Inter-colonial Club, the speaker was requested to give his own version of that part of his address in which he referred to reciprocity between Canada and the United States. Sir Louis explained that there were among his auditors so many of his former constituents from the Maritime Provinces that he felt obliged, in opening his address, to mention reciprocity, which he did substantially as follows:

"In my pre-regenerate days I was an ardent advocate of reciprocity. That subject is now within the orbit of political controversy, and because of my position as a member of the Supreme Court of Canada it would be highly improper for me to discuss the question. I may say further that the people of Canada have spoken and have settled the matter for the time."

U. S. INQUIRY INTO LOSS OF TITANIC

Senator Seeks More Light on Early Reports Regarding Disaster

Washington, D. C., May 10.—The Titanic inquiry was opened by the senate investigating committee yesterday, to permit testimony by Maurice L. Farrell of New York city, managing news editor of the Dow Jones Company. Several affidavits and letters were read into the records, including a statement of Dr. Quinzeau of Toronto, Ont., a passenger on the steamer Mount Temple.

Senator Smith was alone in questioning Mr. Farrell, who was called to throw light on reports circulated on Monday, April 15, before the night dispatches showed the appalling account of the accident.

Mr. Farrell said the information they sent out was virtually from the White Star steamship officers, either from Mr. Franklin, the vice-president of the White Star line, or his subordinates.

Mr. Smith read from a dispatch which stated that a "dispatch received from Halifax reports that all the passengers of the Titanic left the steamer after 3:30 o'clock this morning."

Mr. Farrell introduced a memorandum accompanying this dispatch, dated 5:55 a. m., which he said was received from the Boston News Bureau, the Boston correspondent of the company.

"Did you attempt to verify at the White Star office?" asked Senator Smith. "We did. Prior to that we had received from the White Star officers a statement somewhat similar to this. It was published in our ticker service at 5:35 a. m."

From the Laffan News Bureau, Mr. Farrell said he had obtained the basis for his intimation that an attempt was being made in London to have Lloyd's reinsure the Titanic's cargo.

"Did you attempt to verify the report?" Senator Smith asked. "No, sir," replied the witness.

"Didn't you send a reporter to Lloyd's to substantiate it?" "Not that I can recall. We were too busy."

The item was received at 10:30 a. m., announcing that the Titanic was heading for Halifax, Mr. Farrell said, and was obtained by a reporter named Byrne from Vice-President Franklin. The item at 10:55 a. m. reporting that the Virginian was alongside the Titanic, was said to have been received by the Laffan News Bureau. Another was read quoting Mr. Franklin as insisting that the Titanic was unsinkable.

The witness read an item published at 3:01 p. m., announcing that Vice-President Franklin would send a special train to Halifax with twenty-three coaches to meet the Titanic passengers. The item said this would accommodate 710 persons. Mr. Farrell said Mr. Franklin gave the information to Reporter Byrne.

"That would seem to indicate that Mr. Franklin then had information as to the actual loss of the Titanic and knew that the survivors were only about 700?" queried Senator Smith. "Taken at its face value, it would seem so, but I will state that the White Star people explained it to me the next day."

Mr. Farrell told of going to the White Star line office Tuesday. He tried to see Mr. Franklin but was met by an assistant.

"I asked him if he had received the news of the sinking yet?" began Mr. Farrell. "He said not since six o'clock Monday evening. I replied that our reporters had been getting news from the White Star line office all day Monday to the opposite effect. He replied: 'That wasn't official. We received that from press dispatches from one place and another and just gave it out.'"

James A. Hoxey, a telegraph operator at Taunton, Mass., made an affidavit saying that between 8 and 11 o'clock on Monday morning he received a wireless message stating: "Titanic sunk." Probably five or ten minutes later, he added, "I received a flash which read: 'Kill flash Titanic sunk. Montreal says the wireless operator at Cape Race made a mistake in reading wireless signals.'"

Mrs. Douglas, a Titanic passenger, in a sworn statement quoted, Mrs. Ryerson, of Philadelphia, as saying Ismay showed her a Marconigram that announced that they were "in the iceberg."

"Of course, you will slow down"

asked Mrs. Ryerson. "Oh, no," he replied. "We will put on more boilers and get out of it."

PARCELS POST.

In the commercial development of any country the granting of franchises to corporations to carry on some specific business is necessary. The franchises establish the status of the corporations in the courts, and, according to their terms are wise or otherwise, the public also is protected in its rights. It never was intended that franchises granted to corporations to conduct business more or less in the nature of a public utility should confer wealth creating monopoly in the particular business established.

Nor was it intended that rights granted under a franchise should never be invaded by a government conducting a similar business as a purely public utility and for the convenience of the public. These observations apply particularly when the subject discussed is the carrying of parcels between shipping points, and they have especial reference to the anomalies which exist in the parcels post regulations as distinguishing this from the business carried on by express companies. It is contrary to the genius of democratic citizenship for the government to limit the size and weight of packages which may be conveyed by mail when the obvious result of such limitation is the establishment of a monopoly for express companies. The granting of a franchise establishing a quasi-public utility and indirectly subsidizing the corporation holding such franchise by compelling the public to use its carrying facilities is contrary to the growing spirit in favor of the public ownership of public utilities. In a word, there is no good reason why a government should not operate an express service as economically and profitably as it conducts a postal service.

The hard and unbreakable economic facts which underlie this contention are attracting wide attention in the United States and Canada, and in both countries there is an increasingly influential agitation having for its object the extension of the parcels postage system to bring it into harmony with sound economic principles. In the United States the agitation is taking concrete form and electors are sending postal cards to their congressional representatives asking four pertinent questions. These questions are:

1. Why does our postoffice department charge one thousand per cent. more for carrying parcels than does the German government?
2. Would not the establishment of a parcels post throughout the whole country reduce the cost of living and benefit every consumer and producer?
3. Why does the government charge 16 cents a pound and limit the weight to four pounds for package destined to any postoffice in the United States while it receives parcels weighing eleven pounds at the rate of 12 cents per pound for delivery to almost every other country in the world?
4. If you favor a parcels post, what are you doing to bring it about at this session of congress?

A Postal Progress League has been formed to carry on the agitation, and in support of its contention that congress should pass a law enacting an 8 cents per pound rate for parcels up to 11 pounds it points to the experience of Great Britain. Its literature says: "Conservative Great Britain is far ahead of progressive America in the matter of a parcels post, and has enjoyed the benefits of such a service for over twenty-five years. Its growth is wonderful and the uses made of it are constantly increasing. The produce of the farmer and gardener is sent to London and other large English cities direct to the consumer in tremendous volume. Meats, cheese, fruits, vegetables and fresh eggs and fish sent by mail under the 11-pound limit form a considerable part of England's commerce. A live baby, it is said, was posted in London and promptly delivered at its destination. The gross amount of revenue the government collected increased from £1,445,126 for 1885-6 to £2,138,673 for 1905-6. The British postoffice delivers both letters and parcels to every house in the kingdom. They are delivered by the same postman, except in the large towns where there is a special staff for parcel work. The retail stores of England use the parcels post to deliver their goods. The rates, varying from 4 cents for a one-pound to 22 cents for an eleven-pound package are cheap and the service prompt. Laundries also return washing by parcels post."

As the postal laws in Canada are practically the same as those in the United States, the same arguments apply in this country. What is needed is an awakening of the public mind and the organization of communities to urge the adoption of a more modern system of parcel transportation.

The only excuse that can be given for the continuance of the present conditions is the unreadiness of the government to undertake the carriage of parcels at rates which have been proved to be commercially profitable as well as of incalculable service and economy to the public.

UNSEASONABLE CHORTLING.

Recently a Winnipeg Liberal paper published an Ottawa dispatch which announced that the influx of American settlers into the Middle West this year is to far exceed that of any former year. The dispatch began, "undiminished by the reports of unfavorable transportation conditions in the west and unflinching by Champ Clark's organized efforts to stem the flow of Americans to Canada this season," etc. This gives a contemporary in the recently enlarged province that swelled feeling incident to the sustained evidences of Canadian progress and it says:

"Yes, undiminished by reports of unfavorable transportation conditions in the west; undiminished also by reports of ruinous market conditions persistently circulated by the Liberal press, this army of 400,000—prosperous citizens of the United States is marching on Western Canada for peaceful and productive occupation."

They come against the counsels of newspapers (Canadian newspapers) which represent Western Canada as a land where the farmer gets only 75 per cent. of the market value of what he sells and pays 25 per cent. above the market value for what he buys. They come regardless of a continuous chorus provided by calamity shouters picturing this country as the writhing victim of trusts and combines and monopolies. They come despite the fact that for the past eight months the Liberal newspapers of Canada have been advertising the markets of the United States as vastly superior to those to which our Canadian farmers have access."

The explanation given by the high tariff organ for these conditions is that the Americans have sufficient shrewdness to size up the "calamity howlers of the Canadian press," of which it is not one. The real reason for the continued incursion of "shrewd" Americans is that they see the end of high tariff conditions in the United States and they know that the American trusts which made their last stand by defeating reciprocity in Canada will, in a short time, fail to hold their control over Canada as they are failing in the United States. Under normal conditions they see the advantages Canada offers and are getting in on the ground floor with characteristic American foresight.

TURKEY AND ITALY.

So many events have occurred in other parts of the world during the last three months that—until the Dardanelles incident two weeks ago—the desultory war between Turkey and Italy had been almost forgotten. The "rapid cruise in the Aegean sea" executed by the Italian warships served again to attract the attention of the diplomatic world to the complications of the Turkish-Italian situation. The smaller powers of the old world lying in the basin of the Mediterranean sea seem to be the inextinguishable hotbeds of racial and territorial strife and the last to come within the pale of modern civilization. Questions of territorial integrity, sovereignty and suzerainty among these are the bane of European politics. When Italy seized—or thought she seized—Tripoli the outside world believed that the dispute would be settled with as much finality as that of the influence of France in Algeria and in a short time, but these anticipations have not been realized. The Arabs, devoted followers of Islam, succumbed to the slogan of a religious war and the world has been disappointed in the expectation that Italy would establish her claim to the Tripolitan territory. Italy has not effectively occupied "the ancient province of Libya," as she has been pleased to call Tripoli, in extension of her claim to the African province. Turkey knows that the longer she can delay the consummation of this effort on the part of Italy the greater will be the strain put upon Italian resources and upon Italy's relations with the other powers in the Triple Alliance. The five powers represented in Constantinople have been lately inquiring of Turkey as to the terms upon which the war may be brought to an end, but there is little encouragement offered for this hope, as the young Turks would assassinate any minister favoring a settlement.

There has been but little manifestation of sympathy with Italy by the British or German powers since the commencement of the war. These two great powers regard the descent of Italy upon Tripoli as "sheer malfauding" and they do not hesitate to say so. It is now realized that, should Italy fail to make good her attack, it is upon her that the effects of the failure must fall.

None of the great powers care to interfere, but there has developed a rumor that a secret understanding has been entered into between Italy and Russia. If this should prove to be true, it will excite the liveliest retaliation on the part of Austria-Hungary and not a little uneasiness in Germany, as the navigation of the Dardanelles is involved. How tense the situation may become is indicated in a British exchange which says:

"It is raising, in a form for which Europe is not in the least prepared, the gravest question of international policy. Turkey cannot be attacked and beaten in Europe without being dismembered; and no one can possibly predict at what point of her dismemberment the conflicting interests of her neighbors would precipitate a general war. There is no reason why Europe should run these intolerable risks to gratify ambitions which Italy, in spite of a great deal of bombast, is unable to realize in Africa."

One wonders sometimes how long these trifling, mischief-making, antiquated and disintegrating, half-civilized remnants of the old nations are to keep on stewing and seething in the crucible of evolution with, apparently, no solution of the refractory ores in sight. It looks as though their integrity is being maintained inviolate simply that the great powers may have something to squabble over when times get quiet in the really important problems of more universal progress.

Developments in Terrebonne throw a bright light on the character of Quebec Nationalism, and indicate the nature of the task Hon. R. L. Borden assumed when he entered into an alliance with Quebec reactionaries for the purpose of attaining power.

Mexico is, after all, very closely akin, temperamentally, to other Latin republics on this continent. During the regime of the late President Diaz we had almost reached another conclusion. Late circumstances have demonstrated that Diaz's despotism was necessary to the circumstances of the Mexicans.

The Times appreciates the delicacy of the situation in which the city council finds itself with regard to the Sooke lake contract. But nothing could justify the proposition to exclude the press as representing the public from the meeting at which the decision was reached to give the Westholme Company another opportunity to carry out the terms of its contract. One weakness of public servants, particularly in Victoria and British Columbia, is a disposition to forget that they are the servants of the people, and that their masters have an inalienable right to scrutinize directly and closely every act they perform. Secrecy has a natural tendency to create suspicion. The council has no right to attempt to exclude any taxpayers from its meetings.

"LET THE DEAD PAST, ETC."

Father—"Mildred, if you disobey again I will surely spank you."
On father's return home that evening Mildred once more acknowledged that she had again disobeyed.
Father (firmly)—"You are going to be spanked. You may choose your own time. When shall it be?"
Mildred (five years old, thoughtfully)—"Yesterday."

SOMEWHAT INCONSISTENT.

From the Winnipeg Free Press.

The foolish, ill-considered talk of secession from Eastern Canada indulged in by a few angry Westerners is the subject of severe condemnation by certain Toronto newspapers which at the same time heartily applaud and uphold threats of secession made by the anti-home-rulers of Ulster.

BRIEF NEWS OF THE CITY

Read Oiling.—The road oiling experiments that have been undertaken by the public works department are not to be extended to the interior roads of the province or of the island. Reopened Studio.—Prof. Claudio has returned and has reopened his studio at 1894 Cook street (corner North Park), and will hold the usual orchestra practice on Sunday evenings from 7 to 9 p. m. All amateurs are invited to attend.

Manslaughter Charge.—Prosecutions under the Coal Mines Regulation Act are being heard at Cumberland against the Canadian Collieries, Ltd., and against several employees of the mine, who are alleged jointly with the company to have violated the act. An employee named D. Farmer, is charged with manslaughter, the victim being a Chinese who is alleged to have met his death by a falling wall of rock and coal, dislodged at the instigation of Farmer without warning. The manslaughter charge is being heard as far as the preliminary proceedings go, and if evidence is found sufficient to commit the miner to stand a trial at the assizes he will be brought to Victoria and tried here at the assizes opening on May 27. Farmer is alleged to have been in charge of blasting operations in a tunnel, and to have discharged an explosion without taking precautions to warn all in the vicinity, and to see that the surrounding cuts were clear of men. W. C. Moresby, solicitor, has been retained by the attorney-general's department to represent the crown at the Cumberland hearings.

W.C.T.U. Meeting.—The W.C.T.U. held their usual monthly meeting yesterday afternoon in the Political Equality League room, 647 Fort street, the president, Mrs. Williscroft, in the chair. The principal feature of the afternoon business was the consideration of the purchase of a site for the new building. The city had already granted a sum of money which would form a very good nucleus for a fund for this purpose. Other business included the reading of the monthly report by Miss Dolman, matron of the Mission on Store street, who reported that since the passing of the winter there had been relief in the tension at that place, many of the men having gone to work at distant camps. The report expressed the need for greater accommodation for those men in the home, and for the removal of the saloons in the neighborhood which form a constant menace to those men who are making a real effort to lead more temperate lives. Reference was made to alleged dishonest practices existing among many of the employment agencies, but the most important subject brought up for consideration was that of a convalescent home. Many of the men at the mission had been turned out of the hospital in a state of weakness, which left them quite unfitted for work—this because the shortage of beds in the hospital made it quite urgent that new cases of sickness should be dealt with, and consequently, the convalescents had to be turned away.

Mrs. L. Reese, B. D., will lecture in Eagles' hall, Government street, Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Subject, "Atina the Breath of God." Soul messages at close.

Must Destroy Dog.—Although Samuel Watt, of Victoria West, was successful in the police court this morning in defending himself on a charge of keeping a vicious dog, his victory was not without dissatisfaction. Magistrate Jay found that the case could not be sustained under the by-law, but ordered that a fresh summons be issued calling on Watt to show cause why the dog should not be destroyed. His worship also ordered that the dog be seized by the police and held until the hearing is completed to-morrow.

Have Returned.—The flies, et al., have returned for the summer. Keep them out of the house. Adjustable fly screens to fit windows from 15 to 58 inches wide, 25c to 75c, at R. A. Brown & Co.'s, 1302 Douglas Street.

To-day and to-morrow will be taken up with reports and papers on physical work, and on Monday there will be a meeting of the general secretaries of the coast, at which Mr. Thomasson, the Victoria secretary, will be unable, through press of business, to be present. Mr. Beall will be away about a week.

VICTORIA CAMERA CLUB.

The First Amateur Photographers' Society to Be Formed.

Last evening at the Alexandra Club the first society in British Columbia for amateur photographers was inaugurated. The meeting decided that the organization should be called the Victoria Camera Club, and that it should have as its object the advancement of photography in its various branches and the collection of record photographs embracing the whole of the province of British Columbia. The club will be open to both ladies and gentlemen over eighteen. The officers elected were: A. W. Gelston and W. H. Mason, joint vice-presidents; J. W. Nixon, honorary secretary. An executive committee, composed of the two vice-presidents and the hon. secretary, together with Miss Brooker and Howard Chapman, was also appointed. The immediate activities of the club will be devoted to the formation of personally conducted parties to the more beautiful places in the vicinity, and the provision of a dark room for members' use.

The newly-formed organization do not propose to do much indoor work until about October next, when a suite of club rooms will be provided embracing a large meeting room, library, and a sufficient number of well-equipped dark-rooms. Howard Chapman has kindly loaned the club a magnificent enlarging apparatus, and instruction will be given to members in enlarging, lantern-slide making, color photograph, the making of carbon, platinum, ozobrome, and other modern prints, and in all the latest photographic processes generally. Some very fine pictures of the interior of Vancouver Island around Butchart Lake and Strathcona Park were shown last evening by J. P. Best, also some slides of beautiful bits of architecture and scenery in Great Britain, Ireland and other parts of the Old Country by A. W. Gelston. A unique series of pictures taken in the Selkirk and Rockies by Mr. Mason was greatly admired, some of the colored slides being particularly beautiful. The hon. secretary will be glad to receive applications from those desiring to join, all such to be addressed to him at P. O. Box 1367.

FACTORY SITES.

Matter to Be Taken Up by Streets Committee To-night.

The streets committee of the city council have an important duty to discharge when they determine on the factory areas of the city, in which, in future, industrial plants alone will be permitted. There is bound to be opposition from certain parties who have made their homes in the areas proposed to be defined, but after the experience of the Garbally road furniture factory, the council do not want any further experience of that kind.

The council will probably find themselves compelled to extend the fire limits to the portions proposed to be defined on the north side, should the scheme now go through as it is recommended by the committee, and so prevent the erection of anything but brick or substantially constructed structures for housing industrial concerns. The city wants industries, but the terms under which corporations can come to a municipality and seek privileges, well knowing that their presence is wanted in other places, enable them to adopt towards the municipal authorities an attitude of independence. The city council were severely criticized on their position concerning the Swift's Packing plant, on Store street, but with a garbage wharf below it, which was practically threatened to be cut off from access to Store street, the city had good cause. As it is, there is none too much room for access.

Concert at St. Mark's.—A most enjoyable programme of songs, recitations, and instrumental pieces has been prepared for the concert which is to be given this evening in St. Mark's parish hall.

The finest and largest assortment of Men's Hats in town, at J. N. Harvey, Ltd., 614 Yates Street.

Directors Meet.—The monthly meeting of the directors of the Victoria Y. M. C. A. will take place on Tuesday at 12 o'clock noon. Mr. Thomasson will present a lengthy report embracing all branches of the Y. M. C. A. work and activities. The general secretary goes to Duncan's to-day to address a public meeting there in the interests of the Y. M. C. A.

Everybody's Favorite.—The Dustless Vacuum Cleaner. Phone 26 for estimate. H. Mercer, G. P. O.

VICTORIANS BECOME THE SOLE CONTESTANTS

In the Golf Championship Tournament—Ladies'
Semi-Finals Won By Miss Pooley and Mrs. Ricardo.

The most important features of yesterday's play at the Oak Bay links were the semi-finals of the Ladies' Championship, and the third round of the men's competition. A surprise was created in the morning by the defeat of Miss Combe, last year's champion, in a fine game in the third round with Miss Pooley, and another was forthcoming when J. S. Matterson succumbed to J. N. Hincks after a stern battle, on the nineteenth green.

Ladies' Semi-Finals.
The winners of the ladies' semi-finals had comparatively easy victories, though in her game with Miss V. Pooley, the loser, Mrs. Kenna played most pluckily. Miss Pooley, however, was on the top of her form, and while her putting left little to be desired, her driving was of a fine length and of a consistent straightness. The first hole was halved, Mrs. Kenna holing out a long putt in splendid fashion. At the second hole Miss Pooley drove her ball straight into the bunker, but her next shot landed on the green within a few feet of the hole. She was two up at the third, and the fourth was halved. At the fifth again Mrs. Kenna's splendid putting stood her in good stead, and the hole was halved. At the sixth a glorious approach with a mashie shot gave Miss Pooley a further lead, and from that point onwards her supremacy was never really contested. At the tenth hole Miss Pooley was four up, but the twelfth fell to Mrs. Kenna, that being the only hole she won throughout the game. The game was won at the fourteenth hole. Mrs. Kenna got into trouble with her ball lying in some rough stuff between the rocks, but she nullified her disadvantage with the best shot of the game—a perfect approach, which landed on the green within a foot of the hole. Miss V. Pooley won the match by 5 up and 4 to play. In the other semi-final, Mrs. Ricardo won very easily by 3 up and 7 to play, the loser not once winning a hole. The final between Miss V. Pooley and Mrs. Ricardo is down for to-day at 10 a. m., and as the contestants are very evenly matched and both are playing excellent golf the contest is likely to provide an interesting struggle for supremacy.

Men's Championship.
In the third round of the men's championship, Mr. Ricardo had some trouble in defeating D'Arcy Martin by one hole, and the last of the visitors left in the competition went out when Mr. Arbuckle beat Mr. Yellowlees, the Vancouver captain, by 5 up and 4 to play. Major Mills was defeated at the seventeenth green. The keenest interest, however, was evoked by the game between J. S. Matterson and J. N. Hincks, both of whom had done exceptionally well in the previous games, the former having returned the lowest score in the qualifying round. It was expected that on form Mr. Matterson would win out in the end, but as in most other sports the problem of comparative form is a difficult one to unravel and in the end Mr. Hincks won at the nineteenth after an game a struggle as one could wish to see. Mr. Matterson was unfortunate at the last hole, his second shot with his cleet just failing to carry the bunker.
Much interesting golf was witnessed in the competition for the various flight trophies. In the first Macleay and Russell Smith reached the final round, and will play off to-day. In the second flight the semi-finals were won by Lindsay and Brooks, who defeated, respectively, Kerry and A. C. Stewart. Messrs. Bowker and Criddle qualified for the final of the third flight, while in the fourth Messrs. Struve and S. Martin succeeded in defeating all comers in that section and will play off for the trophy this afternoon.
Good Attendance.
There was probably a larger crowd of people present yesterday than on any one of the previous days, and the spectators certainly had some excellent fare provided. There were so many attractive matches going on at once that it was hard to tell which one to choose. All the more important games had good followings of onlookers. The putting competitions were very popular and a large number of people took out cards in the competition for the beautiful silver cups which are offered for this class. The results of yesterday's play are appended:

A.B.C. TEAM ADMITTED TO INTERMEDIATE LEAGUE

At a meeting of the Victoria Baseball Association last evening, it was decided that the Arcade baseball team would be admitted into the Intermediate City League. In consequence the second division schedule will have to be re-arranged. This will be done at the next meeting of the association. The schedule as drawn for the senior and junior leagues were endorsed by the association.

Cricket.

Speaking to a Times representative yesterday a well known cricket enthusiast said relative to the organization of the B. C. Cricket Association:

The formation of the British Columbia Cricket Association means that cricket in this province has entered upon a new era and it remains for all those who call themselves cricketers to see that this new association prospers.

Those who play cricket should remember that they are helping to uphold a spirit of clean sportsmanship and fair play. May it be pointed out that in playing the game they are playing the game "imperially" in the best sense. The management of cricket is a matter which has a very wide bearing. It not only adds to the opportunity of healthful recreation, but it serves a national and imperial purpose.

Does not the fact that this year Australia and South Africa will be competing with the Motherland in a great triangular series of cricket matches, while Canada is unrepresented, mean that a strong bond is created between the people at home and those of the first two parts of the empire, and that it is a great misfortune not to have the premier dominion share in the advantages springing from such a bond?

The man who wishes to see the British connection made stronger, and who believes in the empire, should accordingly regard it as a public duty to do all that lies in his power to help Canada take its proper place in the most distinctive British game, than which looked upon from every standpoint there is no finer played out of doors, and the way to build up Canadian cricket is to lend all possible support to those who are doing what they can to put it on a good basis in our own community and province.

Living in this province are many old English public school boys who are only too glad to renew their association with the game, whilst besides these there are county cricketers and varsity men who have all been trained to play the game. If only such as these would turn out and lend their assistance, it would give the game a good start for a successful future.

Every cricket club in this province, whether it be old or young, should make a special point to affiliate to this provincial association, and by so doing bring Canadian cricket first amongst the summer sports in this Dominion, and thus keep it as the king of outdoor games, wherever the good old Union Jack flies. Foster British sentiment and play cricket.

Saturday's Games.

Albion Married vs. Single, Beacon Hill.
Oak Bay vs. Victoria, Jubilee Hospital.

Bachelors vs. Esquimalt, University School.
Oak Bay will be represented by the following players: Messrs. Hewitt, Lunnard, Cooper, Blandy, Paul, Milne, Burn, Greenhill, Barclay, De Sails and Carrier. Their opponents from the Victoria Cricket Club are Messrs. Martin (captain), Pilkington, York, Ashcroft, Cuthbert, Stuart, Duncan, Cuppige, Thompson, McBride and Coppinger.

Victoria on paper have a fairly strong eleven to meet the Garrison at Work Point, but it is quite possible that history will repeat itself and Garrison win the first game of the season. Messrs. L. S. V. York, J. W. D. York, Coates, Marshall, Goward, Gailher, Leonard, Major, Grant, Bell and Spencer represent Victoria.

ON ARCADE ALLEYS.

Pirie's Pirates Defeat Brunswick Pin-Smashers by Margin of 254.

A match was played last night between the "Brunswick Pin-Smashers" and "Pirie's Pirates." The latter won by a margin of 254 pins. The score:

Apparently there are still a number of bowling enthusiasts judging by the number of spectators who congregated at the alleys last evening to witness the match game.

JUDGE PLEADS OWN CASE.

Chief Justice Cartwright Suspended for Non-Payment of Entrance Money.

Chicago, May 10.—The Court of Appeals of the American Trotting Association afforded the unique spectacle of a chief justice of the Supreme court of Illinois acting as a defendant and pleading his own case.

Chief Justice J. H. Cartwright, owner of the Springfield farm, Oregon, Ill., was suspended for non-payment of entrance money for the mare "Ironon" in a $5,000 stake race at the Oklahoma state fair last year. The entry was made in the name of Joseph Canogan, who drives the mare in her races. The judge's defence was that the mare was not in Canogan's stable regularly, and the driver had no authority to enter the horse. Judge Cartwright's plea was evidently unsatisfactory, as he was relieved of the suspension order by the board of appeals. (Additional sport on page 2.)

Both Veasey and Wilson were wild in the game at Portland yesterday and each team scored three runs in the first three innings, chiefly through bases on balls. Wilson was pulled and McCreery went in to tend them over for the Beas. He was touched-up for one run in the seventh. Meanwhile, Veasey had tightened up like a clam and Victoria failed to score again.

and declared that he would like to go into this blooming American game. They took him out for practice and to the intense delight of the crowd, he drove every ball that was thrown him clear over the fence or two miles down the field. It was evident that Mr. Englishman was a great natural slugger, and the Globes decided to put him in right field, trust to his batting, and pray that no flies would come his way.

"All Toronto turned out to the great game, and the excitement was tremendous as the Worlds, first at bat, scored out three runs, mainly on errors. The Globes took their inning, lit hard upon the ball, and soon had the bases full. Two men put up pop flies, and then the great Englishman strode to bat amid frantic yells from stand and bleachers. The second ball came across knee-high, and the bat fairly crashed as the Briton put all his strength behind the blow. Cripp sent the ball; it soared on high, it passed over the centre fielder's head, and it rolled way down the lane, while three runs came in, and the Globe partisans shrieked for joy.

"And the Englishman, carrying his bat, rushed out, not to first base, but to the pitcher's slab! Here he whacked his bat sharply on the slab, and then galloped back to the home plate. He pounded the plate with his bat, then rushed out again to the pitching slab. After once more hitting this, he sprinted back to the home plate, and was thumping it when the ball came in from deep centre; the second baseman got it, threw it to first, and under the rules, I had both to call the Englishman out and to declare that none of the runs he drove in counted, as the third out was made on a ground ball thrown to first ahead of the batsman!

"The good Englishman simply imagined that runs counted the same as in that dear old game of cricket, and was going ahead with what he thought was the star performance of the season. The game? Oh, yes the Worlds won out, 12 to 8—won it by just the margin of the four runs that the Englishman's hit ought to have collected."

Enter People's Shield Contest. The application of the Victoria football team for entry into the People's Shield contest, to be held in Winnipeg this summer, has been sent in and unless the committee in charge of the competition refuses the entry on the grounds that the Victorians are professionals it is assured that this city will be well represented in Canada's classic football event.

The Wests will line up as follows: Goal, Robertson; fullbacks, Prevost and Whyte; half-backs, McDonald, Pettit and Warnick; forwards, Sherratt, Youson, Peden, Stewart and Sedger.

The Wests have twice successfully won the Island championship and are the present holders of the B. C. title. They feel pretty confident that they can take the measure of the Ranchmen to-morrow, but are willing to admit that no matter how it goes they will know they have been in a football game. The Coquitlamites are making expenses of the trip over in a novel way for a football team. On their sweaters are inscribed terse invitations to buy lots in Coquitlam or something to that effect, and, of course, the real estate men in the little Mainland burg are putting up the money to take the team to Victoria.

The bride, attended in a chic and modish navy blue tailored suit with white picture hat with algerette lace trimmings to match, and carrying a dainty shower bouquet of carnations, roses and asparagus fern was attended by Miss Belle Russell of Vancouver, attired in a navy blue tailored suit with pink picture hat. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Canon Silva White in the presence of a large number of friends of the young couple, the groom being supported by Mr. George Buterworth, of Southport, England. The gift of the groom to the bride was a pearl and amethyst pendant, to the bride a diamond brooch and to the groom a handsome watch fob. The wedding party approached the altar to the tune of Wagner's Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin.

May Now be Had in Town at Best Shops

The Evening Chit-Chat

By Ruth Cameron

I will remember that my husband and children would rather have a pleasant, happy wife and mother, than the most immaculate house in the world; therefore, I will try not to do any more house cleaning than I can do and keep well and pleasant.

I will not be influenced in the smallest degree by the amount of cleaning which my neighbor does. I know what my house needs and what I am capable of doing, and no fears of hers shall spur me to do one whit more.

I will not criticize my neighbor's house cleaning. She knows what is best for her.

This season I will try to do away with every piece of furniture and every ornament which is not yielding due return in utility or beauty for the care which I have to give it.

When I am looking over our clothes and putting things away for the summer, I will remember that I have no right to keep anything on the vague chance that I might possibly need it in the distant future, when there are so many who undoubtedly need it right now. I will try to make my charity bundle larger than ever before, and I will see that it contains less junk and more charity.

I will not go beyond the limit of my strength in trying to finish this or that task at any special time. No matter how temptingly near the completion of any task I may be, I will stop when I know I ought to. It is better to give up finishing that last shelf in the dining room closet than to finish it and myself, too.

I will make some radical changes in the arrangement of my furniture. There is nothing in the world so healthful as change. Even little changes like this help get us out of the rut and refresh us. I'd like to go to Europe this spring. I can't. I can rearrange the living-room furniture, so I will.

If possible, I will deprive myself of some other luxury and put a few more dollars this year into buying strength for my spring cleaning.

I will not eat hurried and insufficient meals in house-cleaning time because I want to get back to my cleaning. When you want an engine to go very fast you do not cut down its supply of coal.

First, last and always, I will try to remember that my family and I do not exist for our house, but that our house is for us, and holding firmly to that perspective, I will try to go about my house cleaning this year more sanely, sensibly and tranquilly than I ever have before.

BUSINESS HEAD OF TORONTO GLOBE HERE

J. F. McKay is Much Impressed With Development of West—Confidence in Its Future

The able business head of a great Canadian newspaper is at present a guest in this city. J. W. McKay, managing director of the Toronto Globe, accompanied by Mrs. McKay, arrived in Victoria from Vancouver yesterday afternoon on their first visit in six years. The purpose of Mr. McKay's trip is to view for himself the marked progress of the west in late years, reports of which have reached Toronto in such gorgeous coloring that the prominent men there feel it their duty to come out and see for themselves.

Mr. McKay is particularly impressed with the growth of the Pacific coast, the progress of Vancouver and Victoria being noteworthy examples of development. Moreover, he does not think this progress will receive any serious check, because of the prospects for the future. A far-sighted business man himself, Mr. McKay expects substantial advantages to accrue to the Pacific province from the opening of the Panama canal, the actual bearing of which upon the development of the west is not generally appreciated in the east, because it is not sufficiently understood.

Mr. McKay was interested especially in the agricultural resources of the province, and the opportunities available for the development of the farming industry. Coming from Toronto he knows the value of the agricultural industry as the basis of a city's permanent growth and prosperity. A farming population means a perpetual consuming market and the necessary factories to supply it. Much of Toronto's remarkable growth is due to the fact that it is a large source of supply for the needs of the agricultural districts of Ontario and the west.

Just now public bodies in Toronto, including the board of trade, are concerned themselves with the great problem of the age—the high cost of living. This is increasing ominously, in common with the rest of Canada, and presents a condition which it is imperative to alleviate in some way.

Mr. and Mrs. McKay spent the afternoon in a motor tour of the city and environs, which will enable them to fully appreciate the growth of the city since their last visit here.

METHODIST CONFERENCE.

Ministers Already Beginning to Arrive—Increase of Enthusiasm.

With the approach of the Methodist conference, the ministers are beginning to arrive in the city. Rev. J. P. Westman, field secretary for Alberta and B. C., in connection with Sunday School and Young People's work is already here making preparations for the work of his departments.

When seen regarding the year's work he reported an increase in enthusiasm along the various lines. The idea of training all workers is taking hold of the public. Nearly 700 have taken hold of the training work in connection with the meetings he has held since the last conference. Many schools and young people's societies have been organized and the work extended on many lines.

The complete report of the work will be presented at the conference on Monday, May 20, together with resolutions regarding the future policy of the department. Arrangements have been made for the holding of several schools during the summer. These will be followed by an effort to form training classes in connection with each congregation.

SEVEN THOUSAND NOTICES.

In Connection With Revised Assessment Roll—Unfortunate Agreement Holder.

Notices are being sent out to seven thousand owners of property in this city in connection with the preparation of the assessment roll for 1912.

These notices affect 17,000 properties, but the above-mentioned seven thousand by no means represent the registered owners of property in the city, as the unfortunate owners under agreement of sale do not count, although they are responsible for the taxes, both general and on local improvement, and maintain the city just as much as the registered owners. The Land Act is so drawn, however, that while both owner and purchaser may be on the municipal voters' list, the owner has to vote, and if he does not, the purchaser under the agreement must present a written statement from the owner that the former will not exercise the franchise, and then he may vote. The number of notices has grown from three to seven thousand in a few years, with the development of the city.

When with the present month the roll is completed, and the owners have received the notices as far as possible, the court of revision on the roll will be held, the date usually falling in the second week of July.

Y. W. C. A. SOCIAL.

Enjoyable Gathering of Members and Friends Held Last Evening.

At the Y. W. C. A. a delightful gathering of members and friends took place last evening, the function taking the form of an informal social during which a programme of songs and recitations was given. The real purpose of the gathering was in order that the members might view the plans of the proposed new building which had been prepared by the architect, Mr. Frame, and which were placed in a prominent position in order to enable all present to see them. The president, Mrs. Adams, who occupied the chair, in a few opening remarks called attention to the numerous disadvantages of the present building occupied by the Y. W. C. A. and its insufficient accommodation, emphasizing the necessity of much larger quarters for the institution now that its membership had grown so considerably and the city had become so much larger.

In speaking of the new building the president called attention to its numerous advantages, its splendid dormitory accommodation, its large recreation swimming pool, all of which would provide the girls with unparalleled sources of recreation and amusement. To the city such an institution would likewise be a boon, as it would fill a much felt necessity in providing a home for the young women who came to the city as strangers. An enjoyable feature of the programme was the singing by Messrs. Frame and McDonald of a number of duets; also Miss Gladys Stelmets' recitation, "The Inventor's Wife," and Miss Miller's rendering of a vocal solo, "Times Rose." Encores were demanded for all these, and for Mr. Frame's singing of "Sincerity," Miss Griffith's "Angus Macdonald," and Mr. Dalzell's "Bandolero." Others who contributed much appreciated items to the programme were Miss Willis, Mrs. Bell, and Miss Collis, the enjoyable occasion concluding with the serving of refreshments by the ladies of the institute.

MEXICANS PANIC-STRICKEN.

Guadalajara, Mex., May 9.—(Delayed in transmission).—A condition of terror exists in this city as the result of earthquakes, which in the twenty-four hours since Wednesday morning have numbered over 35. Many shocks were felt to-day, but their force was less severe than those of yesterday. The people continue to live in the open spaces. Some churches and stores have been seriously damaged. The disturbance is unlike anything known here since 1873. The shocks have not been felt outside of a limited zone and scientists are puzzled by the nature of the quakes. Colima volcano is at present dormant.

MORE LIGHT ON TITANIC DISASTER

CHARGES ARE MADE AGAINST FIREMEN

Alleged to Have Raided Third-Class Saloon for Life-Preservers

London, May 10.—That all the members of the crew of the Titanic on the night of the disaster did not act in the manner expected from men of their calling is being slowly drawn out from the witnesses at the British Board of Trade inquiry. It came out during yesterday's hearing that the firemen of the Titanic, when the water entered their quarters, raided the third-class saloon for life-preservers. Certainly, as was pointed out, they were not needed by passengers, as the vessel carried only a small portion of her complement of third-class passengers. That importance is attached to the action of the firemen, however, is shown by the questions put by Lord Mersey as to how the men reached that part of the vessel.

From another witness, S. J. Rule, a bathroom steward, it was also learned that there was a rush on lifeboat No. 15, and that she left the Titanic with only four or five women and three children, while sixty-one men got away in her.

Rule said that scouts were sent to look for women and children, but they looked only on one deck and then returned and said there were no more there. The first officer, Murdoch, told the men to fill the boat. There was then a rush of men for the boat.

"You knew more women and children were on board?" he was asked. "I imagined so," Rule replied. "Then you did not obey the order that women and children were to go first?" "We were ordered into the boat."

It also came out to-day that the watertight compartments practically for three-fourths of the length of the ship were opened by order of the engineers upward of an hour after the ship struck and never were closed again.

The inquiry was adjourned until Tuesday.

Weymouth, Eng., May 10.—King George passed practically the whole morning inspecting the hydro-aeroplane invented by Horace Short. It has not yet been divulged whether arrangements have been made to give the King the trip in the air that he desires so much.

WIRELESS RECEIVED FROM NEW PRINCESS

Sophia Reports Off Central America Coast—Not Arriving Till Late Next Week

First wireless messages from the new C. F. R. steamer Princess Sophia, Capt. Lindgren, were received by Capt. Troup, manager of the B. C. Coast Service, yesterday afternoon. The wireless was received here via San Jose del Cabo, Central America, and reported "all well." From the position the Sophia was yesterday when she sent the wireless it is certain that she will not reach Victoria until the end of next week, or beginning of the following week.

From now on messages should be received from the Sophia almost every day, as she is now within the range of the coast station. The Sophia has not made a call since she stopped at Punta Arenas on April 9 and is making a fairly good run up the Pacific.

BAD WEATHER CROSSING.

Christian Bors Encounters Hurricane in Pacific, Which Does Damage to Decks.

Vancouver, May 10.—Taking twenty-eight days to cross the Pacific, the Norwegian steamer Christian Bors, Captain Hille, arrived yesterday morning from Java with a cargo of sugar for the Vancouver refinery, and she reports heavy weather on the trans-Pacific passage, which made her several days late. It is nearly three years since the Christian Bors was here. On her last visit she arrived in Vancouver on September 23, 1909, from Java with sugar, and left on October 12. Since then she has made several trips between Australia and this coast.

The Christian Bors loaded her sugar at various Java ports, and closed at Probolinggo, sailing on March 25. She called at Palo-Laut on March 23 for bunkers, and Captain Hille reports fine weather running through the Sulu Sea. He noticed extensive bush fires in the Philippine group, and then a course was laid for Mol, where the steamer took on more fuel. She cleared the Japanese port on April 13, and for the first few days met favorable weather. On April 21, however, the steamer ran into a hurricane which veered from W. S. W. to S. W. This lasted for 24 hours, and brought up a heavy sea, which swept the steamer's decks and did damage to deck gear. Bad weather accompanied the vessel as far as the Straits, and this, together with the fact that she is foul, accounts for her slow passage. She brings 6,150 tons of sugar, mostly in baskets, and this shipment clears up last season's Java crop.

IRVINE PLACE

Way to Mount
Douglas
Pub. Park

THE REASONS WHY:

In the first place you get a level, cleared, rockless lot, a quarter-acre or more in area, on payment down of $50. The most expensive lot in the entire subdivision would cost you only $80 down. The next payment would be due next fall, about September, and it would amount only to another $50 or another $80, depending on what size of lot you selected.

Doesn't Cost Very Much To Get In Now

In any event, these lots will rise rapidly in value even if there were no other reason than that the section of the environs of Victoria in which they are situated, is bound to go ahead within the next few months. "Irvine Place" is in the direct road of advancement. It is not more than 300 yards beyond the Mount Tolmie post office and only a good fifteen minutes' walk from the Mount Tolmie car line and the University and Normal schools. Beyond it lies Mount Douglas with the new public park which is being improved now, and which will be the objective of a new line of street railway within a short time, according to present plans.

Among The First Buyers

Was a man who is in a position to know what is going to happen in the district in which "Irvine Place" is located. He might have put his money anywhere else. BUT HE CHOSE THIS PROPERTY. Look at the price of surrounding property, even in acreage, and then think things over.

"IRVINE PLACE" Lots Will Double

Before this time next year if the work now being considered is carried out. Every lot in the piece is a desirable homesite with fine views of the beautiful surrounding country; with deep, fertile soil as level and clear as a pavement and without a patch of rock anywhere. If the prices depended only on the ordinary growth of the district, these lots at our prices would be first class investments and would make handsome returns in a short time. BUT

A New Street Car Line

To Mount Douglas Park, which will certainly be built before long, no matter what else happens, cannot help but raise the values on "Irvine Place." If it follows the natural and best grade it will cut right through "Irvine Place." IT CANNOT HELP BUT PASS VERY CLOSE TO THE PROPERTY.

American Business Man Con-

One of the passengers for Seattle, A. Sutcliffe, a jeweller of Manila, Philippine Islands, who arrived on the Sanuki Maru this morning from the Orient, said that he was very proud of the record of the Americans in the Philippines in their dealing with the aborigines. He thought the record of the occupation would compare with that of any civilized country in its relations to the native races under its control. The contrast with the Japanese occupation of Formosa, where the aborigines were being rudely displaced with the immigrants from the Land of the Rising Sun, was a test of the difference between white and yellow races in dealing with a subject people. He had been in the Philippines since 1899, and therefore had an opportunity of seeing the effects of the American civilization in the old Spanish colony. From what he had seen of the white races in their intercourse with the Oriental peoples, he was satisfied that the American influence would take rank above many if not all others.

The condition of the territory was excellent, business possibilities being exceptional, but the islands were suffering from the uncertainty of the presidential contest in the United States. The election's effect would be indirect, in that circumstances might arise therefrom by which the present governor might be retired, and his loss would be a great one to the commercial interests of the group, as he had thrown himself into the development of the latent possibilities of the Philippines. Few, in fact, knew the opportunities which lay before the islands in the way of agricultural expansion.

The country had been too poor, had been torn with civil dissension, and had suffered from lack of enterprise so long that the islands as yet had not reached anything like the flood tide of prosperity, but given settled conditions there would be a remarkable expansion in the near future. Mr. Sutcliffe is taking a holiday in the United States, and came west by way of China and Japan. There was considerable excitement in Yokohama through the firemen's strike, which delayed the Sanuki practically two days.

ROUND THE WORLD TO STUDY SOCIETY

TWO TRAVELLERS EN
ROUTE FROM MELBOURNE

Carry Introductions From Prime Minister Fisher—
Impressions of Tour

To study the sociological problems of the world so far as opportunities offer, Rev. J. H. Cain, of the Methodist Central mission, Melbourne, the greatest Methodist home missionary enterprise in Australia; Edward Glick, a business man, also of Melbourne, are on a tour of the world, thereby achieving the ambition of almost all educated Australians. They arrived on the Sanuki Maru from the Orient this morning, and proceeded this afternoon to Vancouver, where they will stay over the week end.

By easy stages the two travellers, who left Melbourne several months ago, have journeyed up the east coast to Australia to the Philippines, thence to China and through Japan. They will go to Banff and Winnipeg, and then across the line to attend the general conference in St. Paul, and re- turning to the Canadian side will visit Toronto. They will sail from New York for England. From the Old Country their mission will take them through several European countries to India, and thence to Australia.

Messrs. Cain and Glick carry introductions from the prime minister, Hon. Andrew Fisher, and the minister of external affairs, Hon. J. Thomas, and being personally known to most of the Australian federal ministers, they can speak with some knowledge of political affairs in the Commonwealth. Mr. Glick expressed the opinion that the government was finding itself forced into more radical measures than the ministers personally favored, through the pressure from the rank and file, and the danger to their position came from outside, and not from the Liberal opposition. The visitors did not anticipate a change at the general election next year, though there was an undoubted swing of the pendulum demonstrated at the state elections.

Mr. Cain is a believer in the principle of the right to work, and that every man has an inborn privilege to employment at a reasonable figure, nor does he see any hope of salvation for society till a larger share of the product of labor is in the hands of the producing classes. While Australia is a country of social experiments, it has necessarily to deal with problems of industrial difficulty, such as great urban communities like Melbourne and Sydney are inevitably faced with. He wants to see how these questions of dealing with the back wash of civilization have been solved in the greater areas of population of the old world, to learn how the wrecks and derelicts of society are gathered up and brought into a fuller and better life. He expects to meet some of the philanthropists of the Old Country, and talk their experiences over in the light of modern knowledge. He knows personally a number of British labor leaders, and intends to meet them, to discuss sociological reform.

Mr. Cain said that the conferences of the Methodist church in Australia had been recently held, and all showed a real progress with the same difficulty as here of finding enough ministers to cover the ground. What struck him most in connection with his visit to the Orient, and particularly China, where he found the country still in a state of transition, following the upheaval of the revolution, were the splendid educational institutions of the country under Christian, and particularly Methodist, auspices.

Fined for Speeding.—"I had a fault in my engine and was trying to discover it. There was a clear street, and I have never even killed a dog," said Wesley N. Mitchell in the police court this morning when charged with speeding at night. He admitted going over the limit and was fined $20.

FIFTY VOLUMES ARE PRESENTED LIBRARY

Judge A. W. Vowell Donates
Fine Collection of Standard
Works to City Institution

The public are beginning to awaken to the value of the Carnegie Library since the legislature has been willing to concede the means of maintaining it adequately, and gifts to the impoverished collection begin to come in from various persons.

The latest donation is from Judge A. W. Vowell of some fifty volumes of the greatest value, which Miss Helen Stewart, the librarian, proposes to put into the general collection for the present, so that the maximum value may be derived from them.

America "Nature Series," with a splendid selection of plates, among the volumes being Dr. David Starr Jordan's work on "Fishes," Mrs. Blanchan on "Birds," Holland on "Butterflies," and Dugmore on "Bird Homes." The Oriental series, dealing with China and Japan, with magnificent colored plates, comprised in twelve volumes, which will cover a field practically untouched as yet in the library, is another portion of the collection presented.

Eight volumes of Guizot's standard History of France are included in the series, and twenty volumes of the Universal Classics, including books of international reputation, which so far have not figured on the shelves. The Harvard Classics which were recently given, have greatly been in demand, and these new ones will supplement the issue already available.

Another useful book contributed by Judge Vowell is one on the modern airbrakes by F. H. Dukewater, which deals with their uses and abuses, and is expected to be considerably utilized. This gift will be greatly appreciated by the library commissioners, and it is hoped that it will be the forerunner of other donations of a similar character.

The library has on the way about one thousand books of various kinds, including standard works of Dickens, Thackeray, Scott, and many other famous writers, the idea being to supplement the collection in some of its weakest points, and afford the opportunity to obtain on loan those works which everyone should read. There is also in the list a fair representation of later fiction, which is greatly in demand. The standard volumes are being ordered in a strong binding which may be expected to last for some years in constant use.

It is the intention to introduce a bulletin showing the books added month by month, as is done in the larger libraries, and also to prepare a list of books which may give information on questions of public interest in the ever-moving kaleidoscope of human experience and history. Arrangements are also being developed in the way of strengthening the supply of current literature and particularly recent fiction, generally having in view the filling of the omissions in the library to-day.

HE KNOWS "DICK."

To the Editor:—The Colonist in referring to editors and orators who make use of arguments and language which they would not for a moment think of employing in conversation, refers with palpable pleasure to a statement in a local paper (Times): "No one who knows Dick takes him seriously." Your contemporary wants to know would the writer "make such a remark to Dick?"

I don't know the writer, but I do know "Dick," and I remember one remark he made in defence of the Colonist; a remark no one "could take seriously."

I know also that in the same issue the Colonist says of a distinguished lady in England (who in social position is much above both "Dick" and the Colonist) "that restless person of no one knows quite how many years old, etc. Now I am very sure the writer, if in conversation with this lady would not use the contemptuous word "person" or impudently refer to her age, unless he had made very sure her nearest male relative wore soft padding outside the toes of his boots.

To the Editor:—The remarks in today's Colonist, condemning the custom of smoking being allowed on the rear platform of the street cars is to be commended, but why no one should be allowed to stand on the rear platform I cannot understand, while a notice is posted stating the capacity of a car is 120 which has a seating capacity of 48.

I would suggest that the editor of the Colonist make a trip occasionally about the hour of 5 p. m. in any direction in which our cars run, when I am sure he will, if he insists on having the rear platform kept clear, use

IS ASTONISHED AT CITY'S PROGRESS

FORMER COAST MAN GIVES IMPRESSIONS

Captain Thompson of Barrow, England, Predicts Splendid Future for Victoria

Capt. Alexander Thompson, commercial and press agent of the Furness Railway & Dock Company, of Barrow, England, arrived in Victoria yesterday afternoon on business in connection with his company's railways and docks, looking up business for the latter when the Panama canal is open for trade. Speaking to a reporter of the Times, the captain said that the city had changed so much since he was last here that he had to ask a policeman to direct him from the docks to his hotel. Ten or twelve years ago Capt. Thompson was a frequent visitor to Victoria.

"I don't want to swell you up," he said, "but really you have one of the most beautiful and wonderfully good ahead cities I have seen since I landed at Halifax, N. S., six weeks ago, and that, too, is saying a lot. I guess the phrase, 'Sleeping old Victoria,' doesn't go any more. I am glad of it, and I hope the next ten years will do as much for you as the past decade has done, and if it does, then you'll have no kick coming."

"And let me tell you that I look for greater developments in the next decade, for it is fraught with most wonderful possibilities, and that is why I am on the coast to see if I can line up some connection from this section with the Barrow docks, for the new trade that the Panama canal route will create. Our docks, covering some 300 acres of enclosed water space, situated as they are on the west coast of England, between London and Glasgow, are bound to come to the front when these new routes are established, and

I believe we can make such arrangements and terms with the Pacific coast shippers that they will find it greatly to their advantage to establish an over-sea trade connection between Victoria, Vancouver and Barrow.

"Our docks are strictly modern and up-to-date, and we have every appliance necessary for the cheap and rapid handling of all classes of cargo; and as our tracks line the docks, cargo is passed to and from the ships at one movement, thus ensuring economy in working. We have an almost unlimited space for storing and working cargoes above; and as our line joins the L. & N. W. and Midland railways, we can reach any part of England with the maximum of dispatch.

"In equipment we have two of the most powerful cranes in Europe, each having a lifting power of 150 long tons, and these, added to the important fact that the management is on broad gauge progressive lines, are what lead me to think that when your shippers and exporters begin to reap the benefits of the great American waterway, they will find it to their great advantage to look up the Barrow docks.

"In addition to our docks, our railway line serves one of the most beautiful districts in the Motherland, that land of many beauties, the English lake land. During the tourist season, May to September, our company operate a number of steam yachts on Lakes Windermere and Coniston—seven on the former, three on the latter—and we have twenty coach routes that branch out in all directions, and reach every spot of physical beauty, many of these places being steeped in literary or historical lore. In this enchanted district the great giants of English literature have spent the best parts of their lives, and such men as John Ruskin, Christopher North, Charles Lamb, Coleridge and Wordsworth have written there masterpieces of classical English literature.

"So, too, has the greatest painter of modern times revelled in its glory of color. The only Turner got many of his color inspirations from the sunsets as seen across Morecambe Bay, and if it is rich in glory of color and form, so, too, will the lover of history be able to feast his soul, for he can find many examples of the roads and walls the ancient Romans built and threw up on their way from Northumbria.

"Then the lover of the good old days can rest, eat and sleep in halls and mansions that even in mediaeval days were considered old. Just before I left home I had dinner with a friend of mine, a Mr. Richardson, at Cloughton hall, at Caton, that was built in 1216, and still has the original flag on the roof, and is as sound and as safe as the day it was built.

"If we have inhabited mansions of such great antiquity, our ruins are simply superb, but it would be impossible to name a tithe of them, so I will just tell you of one, that of the Abbey of Furness, built over 800 years ago by the Benedictine monks, which is considered by tourists from all over the world to be one of the most interesting and beautiful examples of monastic architecture standing to-day.

"Personally I would suggest that any of your citizens contemplating a visit to the Old Country drop our manager, Alfred Aslett, a card, and he will send them such matter that would decide them to explore one of the most interesting and beautiful spots on the globe."

Capt. Thompson in an old newspaper man, well known on the coast. For some years he was connected with the staff of the Portland Oregonian.

VICTORIA A CITY OF GOOD HOTELS

NINE ARE NOW OPEN AND FOUR BUILDING

Progressive Investors Realize
That This is the Tourist City of Western Canada

Between five hundred and fifty and six hundred rooms have been added to the hotel accommodation of the city of Victoria during the last two years, and some very ornate structures have risen on city lots that were previously occupied by low stores, wood buildings, or old houses. A majority of the number are now being occupied, and the balance that will go to make up that number will be open for the summer trade this year. Besides the large hotel blocks that have arisen and are holding Victoria down firmly as a tourist town, rooming houses in number have taken the places of shabby old shacks, that did duty a few years back as Chinese laundries and similar unprogressive and decidedly unornamental buildings.

Every new hotel built in Victoria is another nail that nails the capital down to earth as a big tourist city. Five years ago this town was called a tourist city, but it was more by habit for want of something else to call it, for the residents then did not dream of the advance of to-day. Before that, when additions were made to the Dominion hotel there were sceptics, and when the Empress hotel added more rooms, mossbacks believed the C. P. R. to be shortsighted, or else wanted to spend money. Now in less than two years the most palatial part of the whole Empress hotel block is being added to the original structure, the new addition making the last one small by comparison. Yet it is only about a year since the last addition was opened for business.

Victoria has grown. In less than two years ten hotel and rooming house buildings have been planned and commenced, besides the additions to the hotel on the causeway. These ten buildings contain over 600 rooms, they occupy the centre of the city. The progress has been so rapid that other hotels which were almost the bone and sinew of the town two years ago have had to be remodelled and rebuilt to meet with the improved conditions offered in the new buildings of to-day.

Victoria is decidedly a tourist town among her other qualifications. The good class hotels, long established, combined, offered about 500 rooms per day for visitors and with those that are building and have been completed in the last two years there will be over 1,200 rooms for visitors in the city of Victoria every day. At the present time an estimate of the number of rooms in the first class hotels now doing business is 600 or more, and of these there are not one hundred occupied by permanent boarders, for the hotel managers of Victoria are not catering to other than the transient trade at the present season of the year.

The city of Los Angeles, one of the greatest tourist towns on the continent, has proved, like others, that tourists will go where good hotel accommodation is to be had, and that every new first class hotel that is erected means more tourists. There are nine first class hotels in Victoria and several high class rooming houses. There are four large hotel blocks now building, and one private hotel that will be opened before the end of the year.

It is only in the last two years that the residents of Victoria have been tempted into the apartment house life, and that there are five large apartment houses in operation successfully goes to show that Victoria people did not resist the temptation to take up this modern mode of living. The apartment house has gained in favor and others are now being built, so that in a few years Victoria has emerged from her old-fashioned ways and taken on the garb of modern city life. The capital is fast becoming a big and important city that will always be a hotel town and a tourist town.

Before the year is out there will probably be a further addition to the hotels of Victoria, as R. T. Elliott is contemplating building an hotel on the property owned by him at Menzies and Belleville streets. Plans are being prepared for this building, but it is not definitely settled and will not be until Mr. Elliott returns from England in about two months' time.

On Government street, between the Mountain and the Phoenix brewery building, Elliott, Maclean & Shandley have decided to build a business block containing seven stores on the ground floor and sixty rooms on the two upper floors for hotel purposes. The building is to be first class and modern in all respects.

The Coquitlam soccer team will arrive in Victoria to-night and the visitors will stop at the Dominion hotel during their stay. To-morrow evening they will be banqueted by their hosts and opponents, the Wests, at the Westholme grill, and in the morning will be shown about the city. It is announced that Alex. Lockley will referee the game to-morrow and that Lockley will act as Victoria West's linesman. R. H. Pooley, M.P.P., will present the McBride Shield to the winning team after the game.

GUNBOAT SMITH BEATEN.

WELLS-PALZER FIGHT.

New York, May 10.—Bombardier Wells, the English heavyweight boxer, will start for America to-morrow. He will go direct to the Coast, where he expects to box Al Palzer 20 rounds on July 4.

KAISER LOSES ACTION.

Leipzig, Germany, May 10.—Emperor William as landlord of the Cadogan estate near Danzig yesterday lost his suit in the Supreme court against one of his tenants. His Majesty demanded that the tenant share the cost of construction of a house suitable to the royal estate. The tenant had been successful in two appeals.

CALL FOR HOLY WAR.

Paris, May 10.—The call for all Moslems to participate in a holy war, which was launched at the start of the Turco-Italian war, according to the correspondent of the Temps in Tunis, is secretly enveloping all Islam and moving widely from tribe to tribe in every Mohammedan country.

DYNAMITE USED TO CHECK FLAMES

Fire at Merritt Destroys Rooming House and Threatens Coal Company's Store

Merritt, B. C., May 10.—Fire broke out in the two-story rooming house of George Riches on Wednesday night and although the chemical engine was put in force, the flames made such rapid headway that its operations were of no avail in saving the premises.

The rooming house was soon in full blaze and also took in the adjoining stable. In order to save the Diamond Vale Supply Company's store, a two-room dwelling between Riches' house and the store was blown up. About twenty-five feet from this house is located the Diamond Vale warehouse where the oil for the store is kept. A hose from the store was soon put on their engine and for three hours water was played over blankets that were strung over the side and roof of the warehouse.

Had the warehouse caught fire there would have been very little chance of saving the store or the City Hotel and several other northern business blocks which adjoin.

A large two-story dwelling belonging to William Snyder was also gutted. The buildings were insured.

CANADIAN STOCKS.

London, May 10.—Joseph Martin, in the House of Commons yesterday, asked Premier Asquith if he would appoint a commission to inquire into the unloading on to the British public of unsound Canadian investments, to Canada's detriment and the sorrow of British investors.

Premier Asquith replied: "The evils of speculative investment are not to be met by legislation. I am not aware that Canadian stocks are specially applicable for such treatment."

WILL BE DEPORTED.

Winnipeg, May 10.—Determined to prevent the I. W. W. from infecting industrial conditions in this city Police Magistrate Macdonald yesterday sentenced Victoria Cove, an Italian striker from the Canadian Northern construction camps in the Rocky mountains, to two months' imprisonment, after which he is to be deported. Cove is the first of the I. W. W. to reach Winnipeg, arriving on the bumper of a C. P. R. freight. All classes of union labor here are practically a unit in condemnation of the I. W. W. propaganda and methods.

You can save $5 to $10 on your spring suit at the Merchants' Sales Co. Big Clothing Sale, corner Government and Pandora Streets.

TWO ARE ACCUSED OF EMBEZZLEMENT

Charges Laid by Trustee of Bankrupt Coeur d'Alene Lumber Company

Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, May 10.—Patrick H. Wall and Michael K. Wall, of Harrison, managing director of the Coeur d'Alene Lumber Company, are under arrest here on a charge of embezzlement and falsifying the books of the corporation. The charges were preferred by S. L. Berry, trustee of the bankrupt company. There are five counts against Patrick H. Wall, who was president and manager, and eight against M. K. Wall, who was secretary and treasurer of the company. It is said the embezzlement will aggregate $24,000.

Bonds have been fixed at $5,000 for Patrick H. Wall and at $2,000 for M. K. Wall, which they have been unable to furnish so far.

Officers of the company were closely associated with the defunct State Bank of Commerce at Wallace, the former president of which, Bernard F. O'Neill, now is fighting extradition from British Columbia. Notes of the company constituted a considerable proportion of the nominal assets of the bank when it was closed by the bank examiners.

REVOLUTIONISTS DEFEATED.

Asuncion, Paraguay, May 10.—A force of government troops to-day defeated a large revolutionary army under the command of former president of the republic, Col. Jara, in the north of Tibicuary.

The government troops were commanded by the minister of war and started from here April 5 to meet the rebels who were advancing from Villa Encarnacion, about 170 miles to the southeast of the capital.

PARALYSIS CAUSE DEATH.

SEWERAGE IN THE HARBOR.

To the Editor: Public attention is called, by first one paper, then another, to the discharge of sewerage from the Empress hotel laundry into the head of James Bay under the causeway. the summer months is exposed to the hot rays of the sun. This constitutes not only a most unsightly blot on the beautiful entrance to the port, but is a menace to the health of the place and a foul-smelling pestilential nuisance. The attention of the council has been called to this matter over and over again and spasmodic efforts have been made, or are said to have been made, to abate the nuisance. But still there it is that every person passing on the

The sanitary department is a mere farce unless it can attend to these flagrant cases of outraged sanitation. Now, Mr. Editor, try what you can do for the citizens and visitors of Victoria.

"The Pink Lady"
 Klaw & Erlanger present "The Pink Lady" at Victoria theatre for one performance, beginning Tuesday, May 14. The engagement is a special one of the most important musical comedy that has yet been introduced to the American public. No production of a like nature has been known on our stage. At the New Amsterdam theatre, New York, noted for many long and triumphal runs, "The Pink Lady" broke every record there and turned its 400th performance in that magnificent playhouse before its run ended.

The success of the musical comedy is due to its unique combination of music, book and wonderful color effects. They blend into a total that establishes a high water mark for light musical entertainment. The music is by Ivan Caryll, than whom no more popular composer has been developed in England in years. The book is adapted from the French farce "Le Satyre" by Berr and Guillemaud, which ran for a year at the Palais Royal, Paris. The American adaptation was made by that past master of musical comedy librettists, C. M. S. McLellan.

Progressing from this foundation, Klaw & Erlanger, with their wonderful resources, have realized every possibility of a great story. It would be difficult to imagine a series of stage pictures more beautiful and tasteful and appropriate to the theme than is found in the presentation of an appealing story with music that creeps into the senses and makes one surrender to its charm. When one has seen "The Pink Lady" its vogue is readily understandable, but to outline this in a mere announcement of its coming to this city might sound extravagant were there less merit to justify its claims.

IDEAS OF A PLAIN MAN

BY DR. FRANK CRANE

If God is not within one's soul, He had as well not be at all. If God does not move within one's thoughts, as the wind moves among the trees, as the light dawns in the sky, and as the stars creep out one by one at evening, then God is but a fiction to quarrel over.

The fundamental virtue of virtues is courage. All moral lesson, all doubt and despair, is the result of cowardice. The man who feels he is divine will be the one who dares to say so. No man becomes noble, good and great-souled, until he lays down the law to himself that he is so. The most irreligious thing anyone can do is to permit himself to think he has no religion.

"I am divine, high, fine, Christ-like!" Let a man draw his sword and take his stand there and defy the devil. In the heart of this egotism lies deep humility. In the bosom of this boasting is the heart of nobleness.

The world is kept bad by saying it is bad, by fearing to claim goodness. In a recent book is this: "Thou shalt not more separate the melody of the lyre from its cords and its notes than thou shalt disjoin the creature from the Creator, the finite from the infinite that bears it, the attribute from the substance."

Let me think that even in my life quivers some echo of those sounds heard through the lattices in heaven.

A Simple Treatment That Will Make Hair Grow

Every up-to-date woman should have radiant hair.

There are thousands of women with harsh, faded, characterless hair who do not try to improve it.

In England and Paris women take pride in having beautiful hair. Every Canadian woman can have lustrous and luxuriant hair by using SALVIA, the Great American Sage Hair Tonic.

Every reader of the Times can have an attractive head of hair in a few days by using SALVIA.

Campbell, the Druggist, sells a large bottle for 50 cents, and guarantees it to banish Dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in ten days, or money back.

SALVIA is a beautiful, pleasant, non-sticky Hair Tonic.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that I intend to apply at the next sitting of the Board of License Commissioners for the City of Victoria for the transfer of the liquor license held by me for the Clarence Hotel, 1307 Douglas Street, Victoria, B.C., to George Fortin, of Victoria, B.C., dated April 29th, 1912.

ROBERT LIVINGSTONE

THE EMPRESS THEATRE
 With a sumptuous setting from which no detail is spared a playlet which ranks high in dramatic productions of the sort, entitled "On the Threshold," is being presented by Walter Law, Miss Yvonne Marvyn and company at the Empress theatre. The little drama, written for these clever players, deals with the frustrated elopement of a rich man's young wife by a burglar who is shown in the denouement to be the father of the wife. Much applause follows the fall of the curtain at every performance.

As an interpreter of the accordion Peppino, an Italian musician who has given much study to this instrument, ranks high. His repertoire, which includes in addition to the classical numbers, some examples of popular music, is meeting with much appreciation by the audiences which fill the Government street theatre at each performance.

Al Prince and Helen Deerie, the College Chap and the Maid, are presenting a fine singing, dancing and talking number, which goes with a swing. They are capital performers and are no strangers to local vaudeville goers, having been seen in the same act last year at the Empress.

Mort Fox, the comedian who depicts the Hebrew character in a series of capital characterizations, does a monologue which keeps the audience laughing from the moment he steps on the stage. Fox is a leader in this style of entertainer, and his monologue is droll indeed.

Landry Bros., two athletes who are trained to the minute, do some daring and difficult feats. Their trick with revolving ropes is applauded loudly at each performance.

Majestic Theatre.

One of the striking features at the Majestic to-day and to-morrow is the thrilling experience of a telephone girl who sticks to her post in a burning building until everybody gets out safely. She is rescued from the blazing factory by her sweetheart, a young fireman. "Captain Rivera's Reward," is an interesting picture of the old days of California. The hero is the lover of the viceroys' daughter and she was his reward. This luck came from a kindness done to a boy of the people; for when bandits had captured him, after an ambush and fusillade, the boy's mother helped the viceroys' daughter to save him. "True Love" is a tender story of family disagreement and parental forgiveness. "Her Masterful Man" is an unusual comedy with a novel plot, showing how "My Lady Fair" is cleverly won.

CANADA MONTHLY.

May Canada Monthly contains a picturesque account of a wedding among the Moros. The story is entitled "Marrying Off Blood Royal," and it is written by Florence Burton Heart, who went by special invitation to see the strange ceremony, and yet lives to tell the tale.

Bruce Barton contributes a story under the title of "Cupid on the Diamond."

Willard D. Nesbit has novelized the most popular musical comedy that has appeared in many years. It is called "The Girl of My Dreams," and the first installment is given in this issue. "Wee Battalions" is the title under which Mary S. Mantle has described the philanthropic efforts of the city of Winnipeg to care for the needy little ones in her midst; the discovery of a new metal called Canadium, is told by John Cogswell; Currie Love draws interesting comparisons between English and American theatres; the story of "Aunt Elvira's Legacy" is concluded; "Making Friends With Your Banker" is a practical business talk by Frederick A. Hamilton; live comments upon the "Money-Mad Farmer's" articles of Rex Crosswell appear in an open forum; and there is a mystery story by R. H. Davis entitled "The Barred Acres."

CANADA'S TRADE.

(Toronto Star.)

The trade of Canada last year was $847,372,733, an increase of ninety-three millions, almost entirely in imports. Our trade with the United States was more than half our total trade, and nearly two hundred millions more than our trade with Great Britain. Our trade with the United States is also increasing twice as fast as our trade with Great Britain.

These figures are alarming only to those timid souls who identify nationality with trade. The facts show conclusively that our trade has nothing to do with our national sentiments or our Imperial sentiments. We buy and sell, in spite of tariffs, according to economic laws and business considerations. Our hearts do not go with our trade.

Protectionists may be alarmed over the growing "adverse balance of trade" against Canada. There is no great ground for alarm, although there is a warning, to which we may give heed, that we are living largely on borrowed money. The adverse balance would be much smaller if the farmers of Saskatchewan and Alberta were allowed to export their surplus wheat to the nearest market. But this arrangement was defeated, largely because of the fear that political annexation would follow increase of trade. This fear is shown by the trade returns to be absolutely groundless. If a trade of nearly half a billion dollars with the United States has not converted us to annexation, we might safely allow Alberta and Saskatchewan to sell their wheat to their neighbors. The fears and fancies of theorists may for a time obstruct the working of the beneficent laws of nature and trade, but the trade returns show that nature will have her way.

WIDOW AWARDED DAMAGES.

Vancouver, May 10.—A verdict of $5,000 for the plaintiff was given by a special jury in the Supreme Court in the case of Mrs. Fred C. Vincent against the B. C. Electric Railway Company.

The claim of Mrs. Vincent was for damages for the death of her husband, a brakeman in the employ of the B. C. Electric Railway Company, who was killed while coupling cars at the False Creek yards near the Granville Street bridge on February 14, 1911. The complaint was that the accident was due to the defectiveness of the company's arrangements and also to the wrongful directions given deceased by their employees.

The defence was that Vincent had met his death by his own negligence. He was crushed between a dirt car and the post of a superstructure where they were loading earth to be taken to Shaughnessy Heights. The company urged that the plaintiff had no need to be where he was at the time, and further that they did not build the superstructure nor were they in any way responsible for it. Neither could they be responsible for the acts of employees.

Mr. McPhillips, for the company, asked for a non-suit on various technical grounds. On this matter Mr. Justice Morrison, who presided, reserved his decision, but promised to announce it at an early date. The plaintiff was offered by the company $1,500 under the Workmen's Compensation Act, but sued for $5,000 under the Employers' Liability Act and for damages at common law besides.

INDIAN FESTIVAL.

Prince Rupert, May 10.—Prince Rupert will celebrate Canada's holiday in right royal style. Elaborate preparations are being made for all manner of sports and festivities to commemorate the day. During the forenoon fun and festivities for the kiddies will be the rule, while the afternoon will be devoted to general sports and games. A feature of these will be an Indian band contest and Indian sports. Arrangements are being made to extend the hospitality of the city for two days to the various bands of Indians which are expected to be in attendance. Stewart is desirous of sending a baseball team and a football team for the purpose of meeting the local enthusiasts in these two sports during the day. It has also been suggested that some sailing events would make an agreeable change.

CLAIM NOT OPPOSED.

Liverpool, May 10.—The first case against the White Star line under the Workmen's Compensation Act was brought in court here. The widow of a steward on the Titanic brought action for damages and was awarded the maximum amount under the law, £300. The company did not oppose the suit.

NEW WESTMINSTER HARBOR SCHEME

City Will Widen Front Street as First Step in the Project

New Westminster, May 10.—The by-law for the construction of the first item of the harbor scheme is in course of preparation, and will, it is announced, shortly be placed before the people. This first item provides for the widening of front street, so that that thoroughfare will be 100 feet wide, the provision of adequate dockage for the ships which will use the port, extra accommodation for railways, and more facilities for industrial development as a whole.

This first work will be paid for and carried out in the first instance by the city, said the mayor, and later it is almost certain that a harbor board will be formed to take the whole matter over. Then it is expected that the city will be reimbursed for its outlay by the board, so that in all likelihood the transformation of the waterfront will cost the citizens nothing.

Mayor Lee states that harbor committees are appointed by act of parliament. His township could not state positively that the harbor board would actually take over the work which is to be done by the city, but he had every reason to think that such a course would eventually be pursued.

"The fact that the land needed for harbor development is owned by the city makes far more certain the possibility that a harbor board will be established here to handle all the affairs of the harbor. This one step towards the consummation of the whole great scheme will cost a comparatively small sum of money. The great thing is that it marks the point where the improvement of Westminster's exceptional harbor facilities becomes actually under way."

OPERA HOUSE FOR NELSON.

Nelson, May 10.—Local capitalists will erect in Nelson in the immediate future a new opera-house, which will cost in the neighborhood of $65,000.

The building will be of solid brick, with marble facings. It will be equal to the height of four stories, the auditorium taking up the greater part of the building. There will be seating accommodation for 900 persons in the pit and balcony, while the ample stage will be provided with a full equipment of dressing rooms for the players.

SUB-LAND REGISTRY OFFICE WANTED

Council of Duncan Board of Trade Discusses Question

Duncan, May 10.—At a meeting of the council of the Duncan Board of Trade the secretary, M. W. Thompson, read a letter from the Victoria Board of Trade which stated that the Victoria board was glad to see that the Duncan board was taking an interest in the question of freight and express rates. The letter also stated that it was understood that this matter would be brought before the railway commission when it sat in this province, and further, that the provincial government would be represented by council before the commission. The letter was read.

A matter of some importance was brought before the members of the council, namely, the possibility and desirability of the establishment of a sub-land registry office in Duncan. It was pointed out that sub-offices exist in several places throughout the province, such as Kamloops, Vernon, etc. It was stated that the present state of the land registry office at Victoria was the cause of the greatest inconvenience to dealers in land. At the present time it was said that there was often a delay of nearly a year before a title to real estate could be obtained. It was suggested that a letter from the council be addressed to W. H. Hayward, M. P., elect, asking that a sub-land registry office be established in Duncan owing to the present congested state of the land registry office in Victoria.

KOOTENAY CROP PROSPECTS.

Nelson, May 10.—"The more I see of the country the more assured I become that the crop of tree fruit this year will be the largest in the history of Kootenay," said Raymond T. Hickes, manager of the Kootenay Fruitgrowers' union on his return to the city. "The prospects all along the line are magnificent and most encouraging. I was delighted with the week's trip which was from Nelson along the West Arm to 9-Mile Point. Everyone is confident of bumper crops and a general feeling of prosperity is in the air."

LARGE BUILDING

NEXT CITY HALL

E. D. GRIERSON TO

BUILD SIX STORIES

Stores Fronting on Pandora

and Cormorant Streets and

Modern Offices Above

The vacant block lying between the city hall and the building of the B. C. Pottery Company on Pandora street, will be covered by a large store and office block, either six or eight stories high. The owner of the property is E. D. Grierson, St. Charles street.

The block measures 80 feet on Pandora street by 90 feet from Pandora to Cormorant streets, and when the building is erected it will be modeled on the most complete and up-to-date office and store buildings in the United States.

Plans for the new block are to be perfected from examples of modern American construction, the owner of the lot being at present in California inspecting buildings and plans of the latest constructed buildings there.

The interior arrangement, the fittings, and the conveniences that are to enter into the latest construction are being examined by Mr. Grierson for the purpose of getting everything of the best into the block he is to erect here. He is expected back within three weeks with final instructions ready for the plans.

The extension of the business area in that section of the city is rapid. In a short space of time the Prince George hotel has replaced the old wooden shacks that were used as a plumber's store, new buildings have been erected on Cormorant street opposite the site of Mr. Grierson's block and a substantial brick building is in construction on the south frontage of the lot.

Mr. Grierson, by using the lot entirely, will get two frontages, one on Cormorant street and the other on Pandora street, with deep stores on each thoroughfare. The plans are now being worked out and the newest ideas will bring back with him will be embodied in them after his return.

were concerned. Reports from both authorities are expected at the next meeting of the city council.

Theft of Brass—The theft of brass from the burnt box factory of the Canadian Puget Sound Lumber Company by William Johnston resulted this morning in his appearance in court and conviction. He was sentenced to one month's imprisonment.

Cigarettes and Boys—For selling three packets of cigarettes to a boy under 16 for his own use or otherwise was liable under the act. Another prosecution is to be launched against a storekeeper who sold cigarettes to the boy concerned in this morning's case. He had them charred to his mother and bought them for his brother. The boy said this morning that he had been a customer at the Chinese store for seven months.

Y. M. C. A. Dormitory Club—In connection with the Y. M. C. A. Dormitory Club, a very successful social evening was spent in the Assembly hall of the Y. M. C. A. on Wednesday evening last. E. Crompton, who had charge of the games, had prepared various amusing and interesting features, which caused intense amusement. Various musical items were also given, which added to the enjoyment of the occasion. Then came the grand finale, refreshments. It is needless to say that the boys indulged themselves to the full especially when the ice cream appeared on the scene. During the evening a new executive was elected, for the ensuing term as follows: President, Mr. E. Crompton; vice-president, J. W. Cook; secretary-treasurer, M. W. Mann; third floor representatives, M. H. Smith and T. Dines. About sixty dormitory men were present, which was a good showing.

Cymrodorion Society.—A miniature competition was held by the Cymrodorion Society last evening at Forsyth street hall, Broad street, the musical competition, any song and voice, being won by Mr. D. Hughes, tenor, who took the prize against two other entrants, Messrs. J. Williams and D. Griffiths. The judge for this part of the competition was Mr. Gideon Hicks. Some amusement took place over the recital of "The Owl Critic," the piece selected as the test for recitation, the award going to Mr. David Williams for this selection. The judges for this were Mrs. Gideon Hicks and Miss Constance Bromley. Another recitation, which evoked much laughter, was the "Cremation of Sam McGee," given by Mr. Thomas. The proceedings, which

WAGING WAR ON CHINESE PIRATES

Hundreds Reported to Have Been Executed—Trouble Feared in Southern China

Hongkong, May 10.—Thousands of Chinese soldiers who have been stationed to the north of Swatow in the province of Kwang Tung, are returning to Canton. It is feared that labor troubles will follow the disbanding of these troops.

A former governor of Canton has been made commander-in-chief of the armed forces and he is proceeding to exterminate pirates on the West river. Men caught stealing even trifling sums are shot daily. Hundreds of bodies are seen floating near the banks of the West river. Some of them have been in the water for weeks.

Foreigners in South China expect a renewal of anarchic conditions now that the funds of the government treasury are depleted.

The British fleet has sailed for the north of China with thousands of Indian troops from Hongkong. Other detachments of the garrison here, it is reported, are awaiting orders to embark. Dr. Sun Yat Sen is retiring to Macao, the Portuguese dependency on the Canton river, where he plans to reside.

AVIATOR'S PREDICTION.

Says Hydro-Aeroplane of Future Will Carry Thousand Passengers.

London, May 10.—A. V. Roe, one of the best known aviators in England, makes the startling prophecy in the Daily Mirror that the hydro-aeroplane of the future will carry one thousand passengers and revolutionize ocean travel. He says the speed obtainable will be enormous, exceeding 150 miles an hour, and as the hydro-aeroplane will soon be as safe as any human invention can be, it will do away with seasickness. There is little doubt that ocean travellers would choose it in preference to a steamship. If Mr. Roe's startling prophecy is realized, passengers from New York can be in London within 24 hours after they start.

MOVING FROM FRANK.

Frank, Alta., May 10.—Councillors H. Murphy, Mr. McGowan and J. Whittier have returned from Calgary, where they went to interview Premier Sifton, who had agreed to meet them there by appointment. When seen here they would give no information as to what the premier may do in the way of recommending the citizens on account of them having to leave the town because of the Dominion government report that the town is in danger of turtle mountain falling at any time. It is claimed that as the Dominion government owns the resources of the province and the mountain belongs to them, they should do something. The councillors have applied to the Dominion government and they referred them to the provincial government of Alberta, claiming that it is their duty to look after the citizens of Frank.

A number of merchants and several private families already have left town. The post office inspector is making inquiries regarding the post office, which, if the town is not established outside the danger zone will be wiped off the map, and there will be no more Frank.

TO END DUELLING.

Berlin, May 10.—The Clericals yesterday introduced a resolution in the Reichstag asking the imperial chancellor, Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg, to take steps to end duelling in the army, particularly the practice that makes it compulsory for an offender to person to challenge the offender or leave the army. Pending this reform the resolution demands the observance of the imperial order of 1887 restricting duelling. The resolution will be adopted, as the Clericals and Socialists demonstrated that they have a majority when co-operating.
